

Hello and Welcome to Oluna

Oluna is an in-between place for fairies and Gods to do soul repair and other repair.

Rathi runs Oluna with Frog God and our Mutual Friends. Please be respectful of their responsibilities.

It is not shown to the public. It is like backstage for God’s Show.

Everyday, we wake up and take care of everything so that we can have a beautiful day and night.

We must ensure that everything remains safe so that we can have a wonderful time.

This is the general schema of how Oluna Works.

You can’t go past your karmic level. When you come in, please check in at concierge in an Oluna.

When you come in, you will receive rescue bubbles, a bag or backpack, some information, a blanket and directions to your room for healing, decompression and writing sacred texts.

Please do not bother plotting. If you are evil you will always be redirected to Hell.

Your stay will involve either; work, soul repair, incarceration or punishment.

Please note, that if you are good, you will be rewarded. Please go to your department or afterlife.

If you are bad, you will be demoted, demerited or dismissed. You cannot come back.

If you are a child, please go to babies, baby repair, nursery, NICU or a clinic for help. Be Good. Have Fun.

If you are a God, please go upstairs to your department. They have almost everything that you will need.

If you are not good enough to hang out with the Gods, please leave when someone tells you to go do your Hell sentences. If you take care of your Hell sentences now, and become good, you will be allowed back.

If you do not become good, and keep doing bad things, you will never be allowed back into our good graces, heavens, schools, work or paradises.

Please respect God and the Goddess, the Divine Couples, The Divine Team and our Helpers and Family.

If you do not you will be escorted to your punishments very quickly. Everything is recorded.

Have a nice day. Please do not bother anyone. Please do not steal, buy whatever you need.
