

It's a Passport to the World

Celebrate the diverse cultures in Orange County through the universal language of food during OC Restaurant Week. Each dish tells a story, each flavor opens a door to a new culture. It's a chance to travel the globe at your table.

Where did you go?

What
countries
did you explore?

A blank sheet of lined paper with a red vertical margin line on the left side. The paper has a series of punch holes along the left edge.

What countries did you explore?

A blank sheet of lined paper with a red vertical margin line on the left side. The paper has 20 horizontal blue lines and 10 punch holes along the left edge.

What
countries
did you explore?

A blank sheet of lined paper with a red vertical margin line on the left side. The paper has a series of punch holes along the left edge.

