

Player's Code of Conduct

Players are encouraged to develop a deep sense of respect for all involved including teammates, opponents, coaches, parents and officials.

Each player is expected to pledge to be responsible for their words and actions while participating in any youth sports event and shall comply with the following rules of conduct:

I will play for fun.

I will work hard to improve my skills.

I will get along with my teammates.

I will learn teamwork, sportsmanship and discipline.

I will be on time.

I will attend every practice and game that I can, and will notify my coach if I cannot.

I will learn the rules and play by them.

I will always be a good sport.

I will respect my coach, my teammates, my parents, opponents and officials.

I will never argue with an official's decision.

I will display appropriate behavior at all times.

I agree that if I fail to conform to the Player's Code of Conduct while attending or participating in a youth sports event, I will be subject to disciplinary action, including but not limited to the following in any order or combination:

- Verbal warning issued by an official, head coach, or head of league organization.
- Written Warning
- Game suspension or immediate ejection from event with written documentation of incident kept on file by organization involved.
- Suspension from multiple events.
- Game forfeit determined by official or coach.
- Season suspension or multiple season suspension issued by a league organization.
