

JOURNEY·ADVENTURE·QUEST ~ JAQ ~

Kickstarter launch in June!

Get Notified on our Launch

We believe in JAQ and we think you will too! JAQ is fun to play. Recent survey results from people who have played the game say they want to play the game again and would recommend it to others. It could be the next big game! And we are hoping our supporters will share the news about our game with their friends and family. How can you help? Sign up for a Kickstarter account and get notified when we launch.

Find us on Board Game Geek

Have you seen us on Board Game Geek? Please consider rating us (hopefully as a 10!) over there. Also, if you've played the game, please add JAQ in your collection and comment. BGG is a great resource, and we plan on making them an important part of our marketing plan. You can even record your game sessions, so feel free to note anytime you play JAQ!

Do you Discord?

Oh, you haven't played JAQ? Reach out to us on Discord and we can set up an online session in Tabletop Simulator.

Partnering with Oniro

We are trying to get world-class partners, and Oniro is certainly that. George, the founder, is creating a cinematic experience that we will use as the cornerstone of our visual presentation, at Kickstarter and beyond. Oniro has excellent accolades, including Roxley and Marvel.

Game Play Overview Now on YouTube

And speaking of videos...we made one! Okay, it isn't anywhere nearly as polished as what Oniro will make us, but it did help us launch our YouTube presence. If you haven't seen it, please check it out! And, you know, subscribe and like and comment, and all that fun social-media-hype stuff.

Celebrate!

And finally, happy birthday to Tommy! He is not only one of the designers of JAQ, he is an all-around great guy. Whether it is being a husband, father, friend, colleague, or runner, Tommy always gives 100% of his energy and heart. Happy birthday, partner!

Thanks for following us and joining our journey.!

Please feel free to like us on Facebook, and please consider signing up at Kickstarter and showing interest in JAQ!
