

James Vincent is a worship leader who ministers prophetically in song and sound. He is the author of the Moving With Heaven series of worship books. He has also recorded worship music on various CD projects as well. James heads the Worship International Network and facilitates its offshoot, a worldwide, international worship team called The Worship International Worship Company. He also serves as one of the worship leaders at Glory of Zion International in Corinth, Tx under the direction of Dr. Chuck Pierce. James fervently desires to see individuals and nations transformed by the undeniable glory of God.

James and his lovely wife, Robyn, founded the ALTAR School of Worship, equipping worshipers everywhere to establish the kingdom of God through the gifts He has given them. James and Robyn travel the world, ministering the heart of God and leading people into His awesome presence. They currently reside in Texas and have five beautiful children.
