

Robyn Vincent is an ordained minister at Glory of Zion International, who speaks very passionately from the very heart of God. She and the love of her life, husband James Vincent, travel and minister prophetically around the globe, bringing transformation to individuals, communities and regions by the supernatural presence and power of God. Their infectious boldness and passion for God continues to awaken hearts throughout the earth.

For over two decades, Robyn has faithfully served to propel others forward by unlocking their individual purpose and potential, while equipping them for their divine calling. She has an amazing gift of wisdom and revelation that converts spiritual truths into practical living. She takes great joy in mentoring and motivating the generations to demonstrate the kingdom of heaven here on earth.

Robyn is an inspiring speaker, writer, consultant, professional mentor and life coach. She is widely recognized for weaving her strong prophetic gifting with transparent dialogue to empower lives with immense freedom and transformation. With fervency, she delivers messages of redemption, restoration, and recovery to see the fullness of God's word come forth.

Robyn and James reside in Corinth, Texas. They have five beautiful children and one grandchild. They serve faithfully at the Global Spheres Center under the leadership of Dr. Chuck Pierce.
