I Still Believe

If you have not read the book of Job, this would be a good opportunity.

Job has a lot to teach us about responding to God when it seems God is not hearing our prayers. Whether or not you read the entire book, you might look specifically at the passages below.

READ Job 1:13-22

How does one worship after the news Job received?

How does one not “charge God with wrongdoing” (Vs 22) after the news Job received?

Job 42:1-6

Questions for Reflection

What keeps you from trusting God with your unanswered questions?
Like Job, what do you need to repent?
