CrossTraining Youth Ministry Covenant

In signing this covenant, I agree to live by the following guidelines listed below during any youth activity or event in order to glorify Christ in all that I do and represent Him to others.

- Be responsible for my own behavior and participate fully in all scheduled activities of any event, including staying with the group at all times, and abide by group decisions made during the event.
- Respect and obey the authority of all adults present at a youth activity or event.
- Respect the physical and emotional well-being of other youth and adults, including respecting the need for sleep and refraining from harmful practical jokes.
- Respect the privacy of other youth and adults by not entering the rooms of the opposite sex and acting appropriately, including no public displays of affection (PDA).
- Respect the property and rules of any place where a youth activity or event takes place.
- Respect the health and well-being of my own body by not possessing or using drugs, tobacco, or alcohol; bringing fireworks, knives, or weapons of any kind; and by dressing modestly (one-piece or modest tankini swimsuits for girls, no short-shorts or mini-skirts, and no bare stomachs).
- All prescription medicine must be disclosed and must be given to a designated counselor who will distribute it and supervise the youth taking the medicine.
- Behave appropriately with electronic devices by not viewing or listening to inappropriate media; not using your device during worship, teaching, or any other inappropriate time.
- Please do not bring anything extremely valuable or expensive. You are responsible for any lost, stolen, or broken items.

I understand that the purpose of this covenant is to allow for the well-being and safety of myself and others. I agree to the following consequences of not following these guidelines and understand that it is the supervising adult's discretion as to how serious my offense is:

1st In the event of repeated offenses, criminal behavior, or dangerous behavior a phone call to your parents and/or a request to come and take you home may be merited.
