What Our Guests Say:

“Alton Maltings has become our go-to venue for training days. The rooms are flexible, well laid out, and the on-site team are always helpful and responsive. It makes running sessions straightforward and stress-free.”

“What sets Alton Maltings apart is the support. From room setup to last-minute changes, the team are calm, capable, and genuinely want your event to succeed.”

“We appreciate the flexibility to book just one day at a time. The whole building is well kept, with a buzz of activity, seeing various groups using the building is a refreshing change from a stuffy office block.”

“We regularly host workshops at Alton Maltings and consistently receive positive feedback from attendees. The facilities are reliable, the location is convenient, and the atmosphere feels professional without being impersonal.”
