Dear Friend of Local Charities and Civic Organizations:

Please consider becoming a sponsor of the 2023 Arlington Sports Hall of Fame Induction Dinner, to be held in partnership with the Better Sports Club of Arlington on October 11, 2023, at the Arlington Knights of Columbus. The Hall of Fame has been around since 1958 and its inductees include many of Arlington's greatest sports figures: former NFL stars Reggie Harrison, Eric Sievers and Wayne Millner; Olympic swimmers Shelley Mann and Tom Dolan; basketball legends the Hummer brothers; boxing champ Jimmy Lange; MLB stars George McQuinn and Clay Kirby, and everyone's favorite announcer Steve Buckhantz, to list just a few. Read about them all at ArlSportsHOF.org.

In 2023, we have six new inductees: Noel Deskins – Track and field record holder and JMU Athlete of Year; Eric Metcalf – University of Texas HOF and star NFL running back; Tia Moore – Women's basketball HOF at Christopher Newport; Crawford Palmer – All-Ivy League and European pro basketball player and GM; Walter Palmer – Dartmouth College star, NBA and European player, and later executive; Jake Scott (posthumously) – All-SEC at University of Georgia, five-time NFL Pro Bowler, and Super Bowl VII MVP. The honorees will receive induction at the dinner and be recognized for their great achievements. Past Hall of Fame honorees will also be recognized.

Please see information below to be a sponsor at the event. The ASHOF receives zero government operating fundings and relies solely on membership dues and donations. Did you know it only costs $30 to be a regular member of the ASHOF?
