25 JOHN HUMMER FORWARD

John played well in the Braves' games with Cleveland rookies in 1970 summer scoring 37 points and hauling in 11 rebounds in the contests. He was praised by Coach Dolph Schayes for his great defensive work. One of only 9 players in Princeton's 1000-point club, his brother Ed was a member of the famed Princeton teams which were led by the Knicks' Bill Bradley. John made All-Ivy League in his Junior and senior seasons.

 Born: 5-4-48 School: Princeton Home: Arlington, Va.

If John can stay healthy this season, the Braves' frontline will compare favorably in both talent and depth with most of the league. John is expected to see considerable action at forward either as a starter or as a first-line reserve. He was the first player ever chosen by the Braves, being selected in the first round of the 1970 Draft.

JOHN HUMMER • Forward

Acquired by the Super Sonics from the Bulls after playing the first 18 games of 1973-74 at Chicago, John got into 35 games at Seattle and averaged 8.2 points per game with 9.4 assists. A good all-around player, his rebounds per minute are as good as anyone's in the league. John can play both forward and center.
