Meet Draco! This adorable Shih Tzu mix is a shy but incredibly sweet boy who's recently come into our care and is ready to find his forever family! At 6 years old, Draco is past the busy puppy stage and has the perfect mix of calm companionship and quiet affection.

He gets along wonderfully with other dogs, is kind with kids, and even does well with cats, making him a great fit for all sorts of households. While he may be a little reserved at first, once he warms up, his loving personality truly shines!

Draco is fully house trained and has excellent manners, so he's more than ready to settle into a new home. With his gentle spirit and affectionate heart, he's the type of dog who brings peace, joy, and love wherever he goes!

If you're looking for a loyal companion who will quietly steal your heart, Draco might just be the one you've been waiting for!
