Meet Donner, our little holiday firecracker! This girl is bursting with personality. She loves her people, follows her foster everywhere like a loyal little shadow, and brings endless enthusiasm to everything she does! She's playful, naturally submissive when unsure, and eager to please, making her a fantastic pup for someone ready to guide her as she grows!

Donner will thrive in an active, engaged home that can help channel her big energy into fun, structure, and adventure. If you're looking for a joyful, clever companion to brighten your days, Donner might just be your perfect Christmas pup!
