Alpine is one of the last two puppies from our Kananaskis litter still waiting for his forever family! He's growing more and more each day and will be ready to head off on adoption trial August 1st!

Playful, curious, and full of love, Alpine adores being with his people. His foster says that whenever you pick him up, he'll wrap his little paws around you for a hug, making cuddle time one of his favourite things.

With his tail wagging every time someone walks into the room, Alpine is ready to bring plenty of love to a family of his own! If he sounds like the perfect addition to your home, apply today!
