Meet Russet, a handsome brindle boy with a heart as big as his puppy paws. This sweet pup loves to love and be around his people. Whether he's soaking up attention or simply hanging out nearby, Russet is happiest when he's part of the action with his humans!

He's doing wonderfully in his foster home and is already house and crate trained! He settles in nicely for the night and is learning the routines of home life.

Russet is still building his confidence on leash. New situations can make him a little unsure, but with patience and gentle guidance from his people, he does great and looks to them for reassurance. As he continues to grow and gain confidence, he's going to make a wonderful companion for all kinds of adventures.

If you're looking for a loyal, affectionate pup who just wants to be close to his people, Russet might be your perfect match!
