

ANGUS

Sex: Male

Age: 5 months

(approx. as of Apr. 9th)

Collie mix

(best guess, expected to be large when grown)

- House trained and uses a bell to go outside
- Snuggly, affectionate, and great with dogs, cats, and kids
- Health-checked, vaccinated, dewormed, microchipped

This cutie patootie is equal parts smart and sweet. He's already got a solid routine down, walks well on leash and even knows to ring a bell when he has to go outside! He settles in easily and matches the energy of the room well.

Angus loves playing with other dogs and has a great time romping around with his buddies. He also really enjoys car rides and is always happy to hop in and come along for the adventure!

He's very affectionate and loves being close, whether that's curling up beside you or just hanging out nearby. He gets along well with other dogs, is respectful with cats, and does great with kids, making him an easy addition to a lot of different homes.
