Meet Praline!

Praline has been such a lovely little pup in foster care so far. She enjoys cuddles, hanging out with her people, and getting the chance to run around outside before settling in for a nap.

Her foster says she's been doing very well for such a young puppy, especially with crate training and learning her routine. She's also kept her foster home accident-free so far... (knock on wood!)

Praline has a soft, affectionate nature and loves being close to her crew. Whether she's tagging along to see what you're doing or curled up nearby, she's happiest being included.

We know this little girl is going to make a wonderful addition to one very lucky family. If you think that could be yours, apply today!
