Meet Rocky Road!

Rocky Road is the perfect mix of playful and cuddly. Toss a toy and he'll happily chase after it, but he's just as content climbing into your lap afterward. Whether he's hanging out with the kids, following his people around the house, or playing with another dog, he's got a special way about him!

His foster describes him as a total sweetheart. He likes to stay close to his people and has a way of making himself part of the family routine almost immediately. If there's a lap available, there's a good chance Rocky Road will find it!

Like any young puppy, Rocky Road is still learning the basics and making great progress with both kennel training and house training. With a little guidance and consistency, we think he's going to grow into an incredible companion.

If you're looking for a puppy who loves to play, loves to snuggle, and wants nothing more than to be included in family life, Rocky Road might just be your perfect match!
