The Danger of Nation-States and Lack of Lawful Standing

Background

The concept of nation-states is a dangerous one because it comes in direct conflict with the National Constitution (1789). Since the Republic for the united States of America upholds the Constitution as the Supreme Law of the Land, anyone who advocates for nation-states in this country is in direct violation of the Constitution, plus violating any oath to the Constitution that they may have taken.

The nation-state concept comes from the Articles of Confederation (1781), which was the original agreement between the states before the National Constitution (1789). The Articles failed miserably in their attempt because of “too little federal government” due to the states acting as nations unto themselves, hence the term nation-states. Therefore, in order to support a nation-state concept, an individual will disregard the National Constitution and revert to the faulty Articles of Confederation. As you can imagine, this individual would be totally incompatible with this Republic. In addition, by violating their oath of office (if they had taken one), they are subjecting themselves to the jurisdiction of the Insurrection Act of 1807 (codified as amended at 10 U.S.C. §§ 251–255). More information can be found on the Republic's website, in the disclaimer at the bottom of every webpage: (www.republicfortheunitedstatesofamerica.org).

If a county assembly wishes to add nation-state language to their assembly documents, they will not be allowed to represent their county in this Republic. If any county assembly changes their assembly documents to include nation-state language, they will no longer be allowed to represent their county in this Republic. If the assembly documents are corrected to remove nation-state language, and the assembly guarantees a republic form of government for the people of the county, then the Republic can accept the county assembly as representing the people of that county, in accordance with the National Constitution. If the county assembly refuses to correct their documents, then they will be an island unto themselves, isolated from the rest of the counties and states that uphold the National Constitution as the Supreme Law of the Land and who represent the people within this Republic.

Our founding fathers intended the county level of government to be the highest form, which was supported by the state level, which was then supported by the federal/national level. In most cases, the state and federal/national has little to no authority to say anything about how the people govern themselves. However, the one thing that everyone at any level of government can insist upon is that all levels of government MUST uphold the entire National Constitution and all laws passed under it. This includes providing a republic form of government for the people. See: The Vision of our Fore Fathers - Why did they establish a Republican Form of Government?

The People of the free States in Union do not now, nor have we ever supported any intent of overthrowing the UNITED STATES municipal corporation acting as a government. We are not “Sovereign Citizens” as defined by Homeland Security. We are peaceful, non-violent and advocate peaceful, non-violent methods to restore and maintain a lawful, constitutional republican form of governance. We would never advocate or take part in the kidnapping of, or violence against any public official; nor do we affiliate with any hate groups; nor would we participate in any terrorist attack against the U.S. corporate government or any public or private official. We love our fellow man, America, its People and the Republic for which our flag stands. We observe the greatest commandment, namely, that we love God and Love our fellow man. We believe that the rule of law should be applied justly and equally to all, both small and great without regard to race, gender, color, financial status, handicap, or religious affiliation. In short, we believe in treating our fellow man as we would like to be treated. We show tolerance and respect toward corporate law enforcement officers even when those officers, through lack of knowledge, may violate or infringe upon our un-a-lien-able guaranteed liberties. We are not tax protesters or the like. We believe in conducting our commerce and the business of Republic governance in the open, not in secret meetings. We hold that the People intend to research actual Law as well as applicable case Law. We intend on attending as many seminars, meetings and lectures as possible given by law professors, lawyers and the like in order to learn the proper interpretation of law. We are willing to assist any local, state or national leaders, such as presidents, governors, congressmen, senators or representatives in coming to a clearer understanding of their constitutional duties and obligations to the American People.

For a detailed accounting of the first infiltration of the Republic and attempt to destroy the Republic using the nation-state concept in a “divide and conquer” strategy, please refer to Chapters 7, 10, and 13 of Volume 2 of the “Reinhabited” books by Jean and David Hertler. See:

"There was no successful reasoning with them [Nation-Staters] even when pointing out the faults of the Articles of Confederation as documented in American history. This is why the Founding Fathers moved on to Constitutional Convention which resulted in framing the nation's operating document, the Constitution of the United States, "in order to form a more perfect union," (connecting the States). Though many of those with a "Nation-State" mentality would proclaim the name of Christ, fruit inspection would reveal immature or rotten product. Many of them didn't want the Holy Bible referenced in government and were offended in the newly re-inhabited Republic's acknowledging Almighty Creator God. If their aggressive attempt to capture and move the people into another jurisdiction or law form wasn't working, then next there was character assassination and most particularly on the President of the Republic for the United States of America, James Timothy Turner. Hell's tactic is always to attack the Truth, and when it cannot be subverted, then to attack the individual that upholds Truth."

And, quoting from April 11, 2013 Public Notice PN364423875RUSA

“Be it known; since December of 2012 a small group of former House of Representatives members has claimed to have convened our House without the Senate. They have proclaimed themselves to be the Republic States congress. As I stated previously, the Republic States have nothing do with the Republic for the United States of America or our Congress. Our constitution does not permit this unlawful act (Article 1 section 5 clause 4.) Over the past few months they have convinced a few others to join them and have brought confusion to the People of the Republic. ... I am oath bound to protect the People from this onslaught of deception as it has gotten out of hand and is injurious to the Republic. By creating this NEW congress or government (Republic States in union) and continually participating in its functions these individuals have placed themselves in a different jurisdiction. They are no longer in the jurisdiction of the Republic for the United States of America but their own. Therefore they are by law incapable of representing any of the People of the several free States in union. Our government and congress was created over 230 years ago, we are simply re-inhabiting it. The Republic for the United States of America has NO diplomatic communication with this New government nor do we chose to at this time.”

True to form, they are again carrying out the same tactics as before. They don’t want to acknowledge the Hand of the Living God in the founding of our nation and they don’t want Him involved in its re-seating. They are again attacking those in key leadership offices within the Republic including the President, Secretary of State, Treasurer, free State Governors and anyone else who stands in their way. To quote the Hertlers from above: “Hell's tactic is always to attack the Truth, and when it cannot be subverted, then to attack the individual that upholds Truth.”

Declaration

We, the People of the Republic for the united States of America, operating within our lawful republican form, neither promote nor condone unlawful conduct. Should anyone deviate from this law form, they do so of their own accord, as the Republic's actions remain peaceful and constitutionally grounded.
