

WATER SAFETY FOR CHILDREN WITH AUTISM

Parents and caregivers of children with autism know how important it is to create safe, supportive environments. Children with autism and other neurodevelopmental disorders are at significantly higher risk of both non-fatal and fatal drowning, making water safety a critical concern.

The NCH Safe & Healthy Children's Coalition advocates for inclusive water safety programs that protect every child.

- Practical tips for keeping children safe around water
- Discover local resources and support

To learn more and connect with community resources visit

WATERSMARTCOLLIER.COM

Scan to Learn More

Contact Us: safehealthychildren@nchmd.org or (239) 624-4033