Comment: Facebook post made by the subject referencing working at business referenced in the scope of work.

The image shows a screenshot of a Facebook post. At the top left is a profile picture of a person with brown hair. To the right of the profile picture is a yellow rectangular redaction box. In the top right corner of the post area, there are three dots indicating a menu. The main text of the post reads: "Doing a little online pop up for [redacted]! Cute gifts that we don't have in store - only available online!!". Below this text is a white rectangular box with a black padlock icon on the left. The text inside this box says: "This content isn't available right now" followed by "When this happens, it's usually because the owner only shared it with a small group of people, changed who can see it or it's been deleted." Below the redaction message, there are icons for a thumbs-up (like) and a heart (love), followed by the number "4". Underneath these icons are three buttons: "Like" with a thumbs-up icon, "Comment" with a speech bubble icon, and "Share" with a share icon. At the bottom of the post is a comment input area with a small profile picture on the left, the text "Write a comment...", and several icons on the right for adding content (message, emoji, photo, GIF, video). Below the input area, it says "Press Enter to post."
