MULE DAY

1982 MULE TOWN USA

By C.T. Johnson | Columbia

*Rain, sleet, snow or whatever--
The mule and its people will get together
At Columbia, good ole Mule Town U.S.A.
Where the biggest parade is coming your way!*

*Several thousand plus fans will line the streets,
so come on out, good neighbors, and bring your seats
The old grey mule will make its noise--
Watch it walk with a great deal of poise.*

*The famous bray will be loud and strong
Mixed with the bands' music and peoples' song
This statewide event has been publicized before;
Each year in March, gets you enthused even more.*

*Overalls and Cowboy outfits will be the order of the day,
Such great spirit and enthusiasm will certainly make you say
"Don't forget the first Saturday in April for the date—
Bring all the family and neighbors, and don't be late"!*

*The Mule Event gets on the road at 11:00 AM,
and continues till Sunday, after the lights go dim.
The parade in the morning, and dancing at night,
Makes a complete day for all, that ends just right.*

*So, do remember the theme for the year,
Get yourself together, and your car in gear.
C for Columbia and T for Tennessee,
A town that is waiting for you and for me!*

Local resident C.T. Johnson penned this poem about Mule Day a few years ago celebrating the annual event.
