GM GRANT DRIVES BEAUTIFICATION, SAFETY IMPROVEMENTS IN DOWNTOWN COLUMBIA

The City of Columbia is pleased to announce the successful completion of the Columbia Infrastructure and Greenspace Improvement Project in downtown Columbia. This project, made possible through a partnership with Columbia Main Street, was funded by General Motors through the GM on Main Street Grant. Earlier this year, General Motors awarded five $50,000 grants to nonprofit organizations and municipal government entities near GM facilities, including the City of Columbia. The improvements enhance both the safety and aesthetic appeal of the downtown district.

Multiple city departments contributed to the success of this project including Development Services, Public Works, Parks and Recreation, and Tourism & Marketing, all playing essential roles in designing and implementing these improvements. Their collaborative efforts with Columbia Main Street were instrumental in transforming the vision into a reality.

"This project underscores Columbia's dedication to people-centered development," stated Mayor Chaz Molder. "By prioritizing pedestrian safety and creating more green spaces, we are enhancing not only the beauty, but also the connectivity of our downtown. I'm grateful for the teamwork and support that made these upgrades possible, and I look forward to seeing our community thrive in this revitalized space."

GIVE THE GIFT OF GLOWING SKIN THIS HOLIDAY SEASON!

The holidays can be a rough time on your skin. Between colder, drier weather and travel, it's easy to feel the effects. That's why Harpeth Valley Dermatology has created a skincare line that makes it simple to keep skin healthy, radiant, and protected all season long.

KEEP YOUR SKIN IN TOP SHAPE FOR THE HOLIDAYS:

Moisturize, moisturize, moisturize! Winter's dryness can lead to redness and flakiness. A quality moisturizer makes all the difference! Harpeth Valley Dermatology's Intensive Recovery Cream will not only moisturize your skin, but reduce redness and signs of aging.

Don't Forget SPF! Even with less sun, UV rays are still a factor. Add a hydrating SPF to your morning routine, like our Hydro Essence SPF.

Modulate Your Retinoid Use. Retinoids are key to many routines but can be extra drying in winter. Try using them every other day, with a deep moisturizer on alternate days to keep skin balanced.

Stay Hydrated!

Travel and celebrations make hydration even more important. Drinking plenty of water is key to keeping skin looking its best.

For more information, please go to harpethvalleydermatology.com or call us at 615-905-8083.

A HOLIDAY TRADITION: DICKENS OF A CHRISTMAS

DECEMBER 14 – 15
MAIN STREET IN DOWNTOWN FRANKLIN
WILLIAMSONHERITAGE.ORG/EVENTS/DICKENS-OF-A-CHRISTMAS

The Dickens of a Christmas, presented by Wilson Bank & Trust, recreates the time of Charles Dickens using historic downtown Franklin's charming architecture as the backdrop. Various musicians, dancers, and Dickens characters will fill the streets. Expect to see and interact with the nefarious Fagin from Oliver Twist; Jacob Marley, Ebenezer Scrooge, Tiny Tim, and the rest of the Cratchit family from A Christmas Carol; and of course, a Victorian Father and Mother Christmas with treats for children. The event will include arts & crafts, food & beverage vendors, a Victorian village with holiday dancers, characters, carolers, music stages, and more.

ALL THINGS ELVIS

PAM WINDSOR

Franklin resident, Stephen Shutts was very young when he first discovered Elvis.

"I was mesmerized as a young kid and I begged my dad to take me to see him in concert," he recalls. "So, my dad became a fan, and we went to four Elvis concerts in Ohio where I grew up. Then I went to college near Memphis because of the history and that sort of thing."

As he learned more about Elvis, his interest became a passion that evolved into a lifelong business. Shutts became a collector of all things Elvis and began buying, selling, and curating items once owned by the King.

"Things like jumpsuits, jewelry, and other clothing," Shutts says. "I've had a TV he shot out, I've had several of his vehicles. I have one of his snowmobiles sitting in my living room right now. Elvis gave it to a detective in Denver after a snowmobiling trip. I had a ski boat I found in a barn in Arkansas that's currently on display in Graceland."

He also began collecting Elvis' autographs and became an expert on authenticating Elvis' handwriting.

"Elvis never turned anyone away, so he signed thousands upon thousands of autographs. But there are also a lot of forgeries out there. And because he got immense amounts of mail and couldn't sit down and sign everything, his secretaries would also often sign for him."

Shutts has written a book that delves deeper into Elvis autographs in several ways. The book "Yours Elvis Presley" offers guidance in authenticating an Elvis signature, while also sharing personal accounts of people who got his autograph in person.

"The book is all about the encounters and the autographs obtained by people, and the stories they recall having met him. Then there's a study guide, a separate booklet that goes along with it, that breaks down how to analyze Elvis' autograph if you want to collect or study his handwriting."

Nearly 50 years after his death, an Elvis autograph remains extremely valuable. Depending on the type and circumstances surrounding it, one can sell for anywhere between $1500 and $30,000.

Shutts, who never got to meet Elvis personally, says he's amazed by what he hears from those who did. Those experiences remain vivid even decades later.

"I've met so many people who were gate gals, people who hung out at the gates, or people who got to meet him backstage, and I wanted to document these stories in the book. Women can remember what he smelled like, what he wore, just everything. And guys recall a lot of things, too, because they thought he was cool."

While Shutts spends a lot of time working with Elvis Memorabilia (he has a pop-up shop offering items for sale on his Rockology Facebook page every weekend), his expertise stretches into other areas, as well.

"I also deal in a lot of historic country," he explains. "Patsy Cline, Johnny Cash, Hank Williams, and then a lot of contemporary country as far as personal items and stage clothing. I handled the Charlie Daniels estate recently as far as partial liquidation, Jerry Lee Lewis and B.J. Thomas, so I do a lot of celebrity estates and collections."

He also had a show for several years on CMT that dealt with the search for memorabilia.

He enjoys it all, but there's something special about Elvis. "I think because of his undeniable, incredible looks and charisma, he was clearly in his own class."

It's a fascination he shares with many around the world, including those he highlights in the book who actually met him.

"It's like his presence is still here today when you talk to these people," Shutts says. "When people recall having met him, it's never sloughed off; it's like 'I met Elvis, let me tell you about him.' Sadly, it's a dwindling class of people just because of age, but they all have a common thread of adoration and are fascinated with having met him. And a lot of times, he changed their lives in a lot of different ways."

To learn more or connect with Shutts, check out his Rockology Facebook page or website at www.rockologyllc.com.

BRIGHT APPLE MILESTONE: 1 MILLION STUDENT SNACKS

The mission of Bright Apple shined brightly at the inaugural Apple Fest held on Saturday, November 2, at Iglesia Una Esperanza Viva Church in Columbia. The event was held to raise funds to support Bright Apple's mission of providing healthy snacks for students in Maury County.

Board members, volunteers, supporters, and sponsors alike came together to celebrate the organization's success and garner support for the future. To kick off the event, Bright Apple's Executive Director Bradd Kimes announced a new milestone achievement of 1 million snacks served!

"When we embarked on this mission five years ago, I don't think we could have imagined we would be here at this moment having served over 1 million snacks to students," said Kimes. "This is an exciting time. The best is yet to come."

"We are able to serve these students because of the people here today," said Lisa Ciesliga, Director of Development for Bright Apple. "This mission truly takes a village, and we have a wonderful community to help us move toward a bright future."

Hyundai of Columbia and Ford of Columbia were the event's presenting sponsors. Chris Alexander, Dealer Partner and General Manager, and Patrick Robertson, Assistant General Manager, were in attendance and shared their passion for the mission of Bright Apple.

Other sponsors of the event were Columbia Collision, Wire-Masters, WKOM 101.7 FM, Muletown Local, Grace Elizabeth Designs, McDonald's, Main Street Media, Lifetouch, the UPS Store, Destiny Church, Boys & Girls Clubs of South Central Tennessee, and Country Financial. Una Esperanza Viva Church provided the location and the delicious taco lunch for the event.

"We are so thankful for the support of every individual and business who has contributed to this cause," said Ciesliga. "We couldn't do what we do without the support of the community. Every dollar makes a difference. We focus on feeding children so they can focus on learning."

Bright Apple is a nonprofit organization that provides healthy snacks for students in Maury County each school day. Many of the students experience food insecurity and are not able to bring a snack from home.

Since 2019, Bright Apple has provided over 1 million healthy snacks to students in Maury County. It costs just $5 a month to provide snacks for one student each school day.

Homemade Donuts From the Kitchen of Ashley Gilles

INGREDIENTS:

2 1/4 TEASPOONS (1 PACKET) ACTIVE DRY YEAST • 1/4 CUP WARM WATER (105°F TO 115°F)

1/4 CUP GRANULATED SUGAR, PLUS 1 TEASPOON • 1/4 CUP UNSALTED BUTTER, MELTED

1/2 CUP WHOLE MILK, LUKEWARM

1 LARGE EGG

1 TEASPOON VANILLA EXTRACT

2 1/2 CUPS ALL-PURPOSE FLOUR

1/2 TEASPOON SALT

FOR THE GLAZE:

2 CUPS POWDERED SUGAR

1/4 CUP MILK

1 TEASPOON VANILLA EXTRACT

PREPARATION:

Prepare the Yeast Mixture

In a small bowl, dissolve the yeast and 1 teaspoon sugar in warm water. Let it sit for 5-10 minutes until frothy.

MAKE THE DOUGH

In a large bowl, mix together the melted butter, lukewarm milk, egg, vanilla extract, and the yeast mixture. Gradually add the flour, 1/4 cup sugar, and salt, mixing until a soft dough forms. Knead the dough on a floured surface for about 5 minutes until smooth and elastic. Place the dough in a greased bowl, cover, and let it rise in a warm place until doubled in size, about 1 hour.

SHAPE THE DONUTS

Roll out the dough to about 1/2 inch thickness. Cut out donuts using a donut cutter or two differently sized round cutters. I used a cleaned medicine bottle top and a mason jar mouth band. Place the cut donuts on a parchment-lined baking sheet, cover, and let them rise again until doubled, about 30 minutes. I just left them on the counter with a large rag over them!

FRY THE DONUTS

Heat vegetable oil in a deep fryer or large pot to 375°F (190°C).

Fry the donuts in batches, about 1 minute per side, until golden brown. Remove and drain on paper towels.

MAKE THE GLAZE

Whisk together powdered sugar, milk, and vanilla extract in a bowl until smooth.

GLAZE THE DONUTS

While the donuts are still warm, dip each into the glaze, coating both sides. Place on a wire rack to let excess glaze drip off.

SERVE

Serve the donuts warm for the best experience.
