Training the Next Generation of Doctors

PROUDLY ENTERING A NEW ERA AS AN ACADEMIC MEDICAL CENTER

For more than 70 years, Maury Regional Health has stood as a trusted, not-for-profit health partner — caring for our friends, families and neighbors. What began as a small community hospital has grown into a comprehensive regional health system driven by a deep-rooted commitment to the people we serve.

Now, we've taken our next historic step by evolving into an academic medical center. In partnership with University of Tennessee Health Sciences, we have launched an Internal Medicine Residency Program to bridge advanced medical training with our legacy of clinical excellence.

It is a great privilege to mentor these medical leaders of tomorrow who will learn here, grow here and ensure that world-class care always remains close to home.

COLUMBIA HERO SAMUEL HARDIN ADCOCK HONORED WITH CARNEGIE MEDAL

Columbia resident Samuel Hardin Adcock was recently honored with the Carnegie Medal for his heroic actions to rescue a man from drowning in the Duck River at Chickasaw Trace Park.

"Samuel's actions that day demonstrated tremendous courage and selflessness," said Mayor Chaz Molder. "He saw someone in danger and immediately put his own safety at risk to help. We are proud to recognize Samuel as a Columbia hero and to celebrate this well-deserved honor with him and his family."

Adcock, an auto assembly plant tool coordinator, was awarded the Carnegie Medal in March by the Pittsburgh-based Carnegie Hero Fund Commission for his actions on May 23, 2025.

According to the Commission, 25-year-old Colin McNary, who was severely autistic, ran into the Duck River at a boat ramp in Chickasaw Trace Park and was swept downstream by the current. Adcock, 26, and James Alan Garner, 41, both of Columbia, were with Garner's family near the boat ramp when they saw McNary being carried downstream.

Adcock immediately entered the river and swam downstream. Garner followed. About 1,000 feet downstream, McNary was swept into a calmer area, where Adcock was able to reach him. McNary struggled and submerged Adcock, who pushed McNary away to get air. Adcock then stood on an underwater tree limb, grabbed McNary again and helped move him toward the riverbank.

Garner arrived and positioned himself behind McNary. Together, the two men pushed and pulled McNary toward a large tree root. The steep, rocky riverbank prevented them from climbing out. Garner swam approximately 120 feet upstream to look for another route but was unable to find one. He returned and helped keep McNary calm until a rescue boat arrived.

The rescue boat transported McNary to the boat ramp, where his parents were waiting. He was then taken by ambulance to a hospital. The boat returned to the river to pick up Adcock and Garner, who were tired and cold but not injured. The two men later visited the hospital, still wet from the rescue, to check on McNary.

Nations RV & Marine owners Julie & Tony Herring. Photography by Robbie Mathis

DO-IT-ALL UNICORN

JASON ZASKY

“We are a unicorn in this industry, being that we are in sales, service, repair, and collision. That is a combination that you do not find,” begins Tony Herring, co-owner of Nations RV and Marine, at 7657 Highway 7 in Lyles.

“We have an RV division, and we have a marine division,” elaborates Julie Herring, his wife and fellow co-owner. “On the RV side, we have a service center and collision center where we take care of all makes and models—from horse trailers to travel trailers to entertainment coaches. We do preventative maintenance, and then if they have body damage and need paint and fiberglass work, we take care of that, too. We also do insurance repairs on these units, not to mention full restorations. Or if you want, we can build out a food truck. We’re very versatile.”

The other side of the business is broad-based, too.

“We also have the marine division where we service houseboats and cruisers,” adds Julie. “We don’t do engine work, but we do body work and preventative maintenance, plus structural repairs, painting, and interior renovations.” Nations RV also handles storage for clients—both boats and RVs—and they sell used RV’s, boats, and jet skis.

Predictably, the couple says that their location in Lyles is ideal for their business, as they are located a mere 20 minutes from 65 South, eight minutes from 840, and seven minutes from I-40. Highway 100 is yet another main road that people with campers frequently travel.

“We also offer mobile service,” adds Tony, before noting that their service area extends out 60 miles in any direction. “Typically, RV owners call (for mobile service) when they need basic service done, like their AC is not working or their hot water heater isn't working or if they have a water leak."

Then there are the "cool projects," as Julie puts it, that keep the work as interesting as can be.

"We converted Miranda Lambert's Airstream into a traveling bar, and Taylor Swift's merchandise company brought us an 18-wheeler, and we made a merchandise trailer out of it," she says.

"We also designed and fabricated a medical bus for the Red Cross last year," notes Tony.

Yet it's the expansion plans for the business that have the couple most excited.

"We just purchased the 8.5 acres adjacent to this property, and we're going to be building a new facility. We also plan to add camp sites for people who are coming to us from long distance," relates Tony. "We have a lot of customers who come to us from Alabama, Kentucky, and East Tennessee that need their units worked on. Most of them don't have the ability to leave them here, so we are going to have camp sites where they can stay until it is their turn to get worked on."

Another service they plan to add is what they are calling RV

Valet Service.

"Customers will be able to drop their units off after they get back from a trip, and we will drain their tanks and wash the unit. Or when they are getting ready to go on a trip, we will pull their unit out of storage, prep it and wash it, fill it with water, and make sure the propane tanks are all ready to go," he adds.

In the midst of all the work, the Herring's still try to get away and enjoy a little leisure time whenever they can. Sometimes that means getting away on their 20 x 93 Somerset houseboat; other times it means hitting the road in their 40-foot Newmar Dutch Star RV.

But the Bellevue, Tennessee natives—who employ 14 people, mostly from Dickson and Lyles—can hardly imagine living or working anywhere else.

"This is our home," concludes Julie. "We have watched Middle Tennessee grow to what it has become today."

WHOLE HOG WILD

PAM WINDSOR

This year's John Maher Builders Whole Hog Festival in Spring Hill promises to be bigger and better than ever before! Mark your calendars for Saturday October 17th.

Held on the grounds of the historic Oaklawn Mansion in Spring Hill, the family-friendly event offers something for everyone with live music, crafts, a kids' zone, and lots of pork-themed food and activities. And it's all for a good cause. Profits from the festival support The Well Outreach, which operates food pantries in Spring Hill and Mount Pleasant to help families in need.

The festival, which centers on all things pork-related, has added something new this year, making it more "whole hog" than ever. The new event is a Whole Hog Pitmasters Cookoff featuring a mix of nationally recognized and local pitmasters. And while pitmasters will be competing for top prizes, festivalgoers will come out winners, too. They'll be able to sample some of that award-winning barbecue.

"There will be a competition with the judges and then a second People's Choice Award," explains Shelly Sassen, Chief Executive Officer for The Well Outreach. And for the People's Choice, we'll be selling tastings. For $12, people will be able to get tastings at 4 of the 10 pitmasters, along with baked beans, potato chips, a drink, and a roll. It will allow them to be part of that experience."

Sassen says the Whole Hog Festival is The Well's biggest community fundraiser and also offers an opportunity to educate people about the growing numbers of struggling families in Maury County and ways they can contribute. Numbers show an ever-increasing need, with The Well serving just 2,400 families in 2019 to more than 28,000 families in 2026 this year.

The Whole Hog Festival allows everyone to eat well, have a fantastic time, and learn about the mission, while knowing money spent is making a positive difference in the lives of others.

The Whole Hog Festival is set for October 17th – 10 am to 5 pm. Tickets are available at the gate. Admission is $10 and age 5 and under admission is free.

For more information on The Whole Hog Festival or The Well Outreach, visit: thewelloutreach.org.
