

I Can!

Holy Vocabulary
 T put a contract out on me
 Lurking there between S and U
 Changing words he ought not to
 So poor I Can is now I Can't
 Trapped by T and that crooked slant
 I need to get rid of T
 And his evil pal Apostrophe
 My sharpened sabre Number Two
Will erase these villainous fiends from view
 Then brush them off to grammar school
 While I invoke an English rule
 Protecting I Can from attack
 By placing a guard on his back
 Warning all the thugs in the joint
 I have an exclamation point!

I can do all things through Christ which strengtheneth me.
