[REDACTED] I am so sorrow about this I had no idea this would happen. It happen to me also. Th made a little trouble about it today and my name is mud oner it. The people running the museum have no affinity for guns of any type. Everything is a weapon . I am sorry I did not write everything out for you in detail before I sent the gun. The museum did not send to you a agreement to sign did they You never had a chance to dictate terms and conditions did you? I will call you when I get home and we should talk. I understand this has happened many times in the past. I will call you. Fred
