

PCS WEEKLY

March 15, 2019

Urgent News

Psalter Selection: The Psalter selection for next week is #396 verses 1 and 2.

Spelling Bee Preliminary Winners: The classroom spelling bees will be held on March 22.

Art Prize: Parents, grandparents, and friends are invited into school to observe the art projects students have made. This will take place on Thursday, March 21 anytime during the afternoon from 12:30 – 2:35. The projects will be in the gym for viewing and several of the classrooms will be open each hour for you to observe or participate in classroom activities. A program will be given out with all the activities you may choose to be involved in. Please plan on coming to join us on this exciting day back to school with the students. If you have something you have made and are willing to share it, there will be a table setup in the gym for adult art or you can bring it in earlier in the week. The students would love to be inspired but your creativity and ingenuity as well.

Art Prize Projects and Statements due: March 19.

Art Prize Winners Announced: March 25.

General News

Hot Lunch: There will be a pizza hot lunch next Wednesday, March 20.

National History Day Competition: Congratulations to our 3 winners: Samuel Nieuwenhuis for his entry and Sophie Markus and Leah VanBrugge for their group entry. They will go on to state competition. Nice job!

March is “Reading Month”. Check out the calendar of events attached to the memo email.

The 3rd marking period ends March 22.

All this, the Lord willing and we live.

General News Cont.

Student Council: Student Council will be holding a pop can drive next week, March 18-22. Have your kids bring in your used pop cans, and we will recycle them for you! The classroom that turns in the most pop cans will win pizza for lunch.