

PCS WEEKLY

September 9, 2022

Urgent News

Psalter and Bible Verse for the week: The whole school will be on the same Bible memory and psalter selection this year. For next week, the Bible memory is Ephesians 2:8-9 and the psalter selection is 111 stanzas 1 and 2.

Student Council members will be voted on by the entire junior high this year. Everyone who wants to can run. Students had to fill out an application form and submit it by Friday. Voting will take place on Tuesday, September 13. Four representatives will be selected from the 8/9 class and two representatives from the 6/7 class. Office holders must be either 8th or 9th graders.

General News

Hot Lunch: Hot lunch will be served on Monday, September 19, rather than on Wednesday, September 14, due to an elementary field trip on that day. Please be sure your child takes a lunch on Wednesday. Ham and cheese buns will be served for the hot lunch on Monday.

Yearbooks: We still have a few yearbooks left. If you would like a copy, please fill out the form that is attached to the memo email and return it to the office with your payment. The cost is $20.00. Yearbooks also will be for sale at the school picnic.

Student Council Fundraisers: Parents United has partnered with the Student Council to provide fundraising opportunities to raise money for various class trips. Keep an open eye out for exciting and delicious freezer snacks and meals you can purchase from the school deep freezer in the next few weeks.

Junior High Field Trip: The junior high field trip is scheduled for September 15 and 16.

Parents United: Please note that the annual meeting has been rescheduled to Monday, October 10, at 7:00 p.m. It will be held at Mandy Schipper's house located at 3370 Fleetwood Drive. Dessert and snacks will be served. Please plan to join us.

All this the Lord willing, and we live.
