CAROL

"Infant Holy, Infant Lowly" (#229)

Polish carol

Infant holy, infant lowly,
for his bed a cattle stall;
oxen lowing, little knowing,
Christ the babe is Lord of all.
Swift are winging angels singing, noels ringing, tidings bringing:
Christ the babe is Lord of all.

Flocks were sleeping, shepherds keeping vigil till the morning new saw the glory, heard the story, tidings of a gospel true.
Thus rejoicing, free from sorrow,
praises voicing, greet the morrow:
Christ the babe was born for you.

* CAROL

"Angels We Have Heard on High" (#238)

French carol

Angels we have heard on high sweetly singing o'er the plains,
and the mountains in reply echoing their joyous strains.

Gloria, in excelsis Deo! Gloria, in excelsis Deo!

Shepherds, why this jubilee?
Why your joyous strains prolong?
What the gladsome tidings be which inspire your heavenly song?

Come to Bethlehem and see Christ whose birth the angels sing;
come, adore on bended knee,
Christ the Lord, the newborn King.

See him in a manger laid, whom the choirs of angels praise;
Mary, Joseph, lend your aid, while our hearts in love we raise.

* UNISON PRAYER

Patient and loving God, we so easily launch ourselves in preparation for the secular festival of giving and parties and the swirl of social events; but we forget that the true preparation is the readiness of our hearts to receive you. Help us look again at our lives and turn them around so that they may be in tune with your will. We ask this in Jesus' name. Amen.

* HYMN

"In the Bleak Midwinter" (#221)

Christina G. Rossetti | Gustav Holst

In the bleak midwinter, frosty wind made moan,
earth stood hard as iron, water like a stone;
snow had fallen, snow on snow, snow on snow,
in the bleak mid-winter, long ago.

Our God, heaven cannot hold him, nor earth sustain;
heaven and earth shall flee away when he comes to reign.
In the bleak midwinter a stable place sufficed
the Lord God Almighty, Jesus Christ.

Angels and archangels may have gathered there,
cherubim and seraphim thronged the air;
but his mother only, in her maiden bliss,
worshiped the beloved with a kiss.

What can I give him, poor as I am?
If I were a shepherd, I would bring a lamb;
if I were a Wise Man, I would do my part;
yet what I can I give him: give my heart.

A STEWARSHIP NOTE

As Christians, we are called to be good stewards of our time, talents and treasure. Here are three suggestions to help you make the most of this Advent season:

Stewards of our TIME: Instead of sitting down to sign your name on a bunch of Christmas cards, take the time to personalize two or three cards a day, sharing kind words with the persons reading those cards.

Stewards of our TALENTS: Consider how you can use your talent to benefit another person. Are you a good cook or baker? Make a meal or dessert and deliver it to someone who needs encouragement. Are you a wood-worker? Make a small gift for a neighbor. Do you excel at cleaning? Offer your services for an elder in your family ... or put those skills to work at church. There's always a way to use your talents to serve others!

Stewards of our TREASURE: In this season of gift-giving, consider what financial gift you can make to support the mission and ministry of Charlton Church as the year draws to an end. Join your Charlton family as we GIVE hope, love, joy and peace in these holy days.

And beyond our time, talents and treasure, we should also be good stewards of our PRAYERS! As you drive over icy streets or navigate through a crowded store, take time to pray for those around you and for those who struggle with much less. Become aware of people around you and lift them in prayer.

GIVE HOPE. LOVE. JOY. PEACE.
