

Good Guy Award 2016: Steve Burvee Nomination Letter:

Our original Good Guy, Doug Beck, said that our father, Molly Becker, was the “Godfather of Good Guys”. He stated the truth since we knew him as a kind, caring, gentle, family man who carried himself proudly through his 87 years on this earth. Our Father & Mother wrote all of us kids a letter after Brooks’ passing & this is one of the comments he shared with us. “We've seen how many people Brooks touched in his short time here, and a lot of credit goes to the rest of our family for their choice of friends and the way you have conducted yourselves in times when circumstances and events were not all the best.”

So goes the legacy from our Father and why Steve Burvee from Stacy, MN is our Good Guy for 2016. Steve became aware of the GGO in 1999 when his 22 month old granddaughter, Breanna, was diagnosed with a brain tumor. He wrote a touching letter to ask us to consider giving funds to her parents to help with transportation to and from the many hospital visits. He signed it a “concerned grandfather”. Since that letter, he has been at the Good Guy Open every year. He doesn’t come alone! We call his “teams” simply “THE STACY BOYS” and we appreciate every single one of them for supporting our event and giving from the heart to the families in need.

His wife of 42 years, Gail, has heard every year Steve comes home from the GGO event about the Good Guy that was chosen each year.....and how he could NEVER Be One. Well she thought differently this year and decided to nominate Steve for the award: “Steve is always willing to try and help people. He served as a Cub Scout leader - Boy Scout leader - Little league coach and football coach for his own sons, Jeremy & Justin. He has been a member of the Stacy Lion's for several years now and has served as president for 2 years. He is still a board member and continues to try and help the Stacy community. He has been a great help to me with my arthritis, some days I don't know what I would do without his help. Please consider Steve for this Title.” That’s all it took for the committee to consider and accept his nomination for this year’s 2016 Good Guy Award.

Congratulations Steve Burvee
