

OUR MISSION

At Amorism, we are dedicated to empowering individuals in developing healthy, authentic relationships with themselves and others. Led by Dolly Amoroso, an accredited mental health social worker and sexologist, our services focus on fostering self-identity, intimacy, consent, and expression. We proudly support a diverse range of clients, including those with physical or intellectual disabilities, with compassion, respect, and a commitment to holistic wellbeing.

WHAT TO EXPECT

Creating a safe, warm, and welcoming environment is a top priority, where everyone is treated with dignity and respect. We focus on providing culturally competent, inclusive, and ethical care, maintaining strict confidentiality while offering a personalized, professional, and gender-affirming approach.
