

Ian Louis

Drummer, Steel Pannist, Arranger

ianlouismusic.com

ABOUT

Ian Louis is a Nashville based drummer, steel pannist, and arranger known for versatility and groove precision. Since moving to Nashville in 2021 he has become one of the city's most reliable musicians, performing across genres while also bringing unique voices to music through his steel pan work and arranging. With experience in both the studio and on stage with many well credited artists, Ian continues to build his reputation as a dependable and dynamic collaborator.

LIVE EXPERIENCE

Ian can be seen in Nashville or all over the United States with various artists, such as Christopher Essex, Molly Lovette, Reeve Stimpson, and many more.

STUDIO EXPERIENCE

Ian while working from his home studio to send high quality drum tracks across the world, he has recorded in some of Nashville's top professional studio rooms. He can be heard on recordings by American Sob Story, Katie James, Austin Lanning, and more.

HIGHLIGHT PERFORMANCES

- Sold out headlining show playing for Molly Lovette at the Old Rock House in St. Louis, MO
- Sold out performance w/ Trip Sydney opening for Quarters of Change at the Ottobar in Baltimore, MD