

On-Boarding Pre-Application

This Pre-Application does not constitute a bidding agreement or commitment by either party. The submission of this form does not fulfill the requirements that may be required for individual states for research license or cultivation approval. This information is collected and used solely for the purposes of COMI farms to quantify viability of potential joint ventures, partnerships of sharecropping opportunities.

COMI Farms will use the provided information to run calculations based of industry experience to check 1st year viability. We will advise all Pre-Applicants our recommendations moving forward whether they are selected or not for the above-mentioned agreements & research-based programs.

Once the regulations become effective, anyone wishing to cultivate, plant, grow, handle, harvest, condition, store, distribute, transport, or process industrial hemp must successfully complete the license application, have their license application approved, and receive a license issued by their respective states.

Directions: Complete all parts of the form and submit it by email to: info@comifarms.com

Please be prepared to provide finger print cards for FBI background checks
