

Code of conduct for children and young people

The term 'children' or 'child' describes any person under the age of 18.

As a young person taking part in our club activity, we would like you to:

The essentials

- Keep yourself safe by listening to your coach or trainer, behaving responsibly and speak out when something is not right
- When you are with us, stay in the places where you are supposed to, don't wander off or leave without telling a member of staff
- Take care of our equipment and premises as if they were your own
- Make it to practices or sessions on time
- Bring the right kit to practice
- Do not smoke, consume alcohol or drugs on our premises before or during practices, competitions or when representing us

Behaviour

- Respect and celebrate difference in our club or activity and not discriminate against anyone else on the grounds of gender, race, sexual orientation or ability
- Report any incidents of bullying, including homophobia and transphobia to a member of staff, even if you are just a witness
- Treat other young people with respect and appreciate that everyone has different levels of skill and talent
- Make our club or activity a welcoming and friendly place to be
- Support and encourage your teammates. Tell them when they have done well and be there for them when they are struggling
- Respect our staff
- Be a good sport, celebrate when we win and be gracious when we lose
- Play the rules and have fun
- Get involved in club or activity decisions, it is your sport too

As a young person taking part, we understand you have a right to:

- Enjoy the time you spend with us and know that you are safe
- Be told who you can talk to if something is not right
- Be listened to
- Be involved and contribute towards decisions within the club or activity
- Be respected by us and other club members and be treated fairly
- Feel welcomed, valued and not judged based on your race, gender, sexuality or ability, be encouraged and develop skills with our help
- Be looked after if there is an accident or injury and have your parents/career informed if needed

We expect all young people to follow the behaviours and requests set out in this code. If any young person behaves in a way which contradicts any of the points set out above, we will address the problem straight away with parent's/career's involvement and aim to resolve the issue.

Continued issues and repeated breaches of this code may result in us regrettably asking you to leave the activity, event or club permanently, for the welfare of other young people and our staff. This is something we never want to do.
