This week: BLACKBEARD'S TEA PARTY

Blackbeard's Tea Party have been playing folk-rock together for over ten years. The band started out busking on the streets, but Blackbeard's Tea Party are now more likely to be found on a festival stage, arts centre or rock venue. Traditional songs and tunes are given a rock edge with heavy riffs, playful arrangements and driving dance rhythms. Blackbeard's Tea Party believe a live show should be a spectacle for the eyes as well as the ears. Outlandish outfits, DIY props, unhinged stage antics and chaotic choreography all add up to an engaging, high-octane show that frequently leaves audiences cheering for more. They have just released a new album called We Are People and will introduce three tracks from it on this week's show.
