Guest: AMANDA PASCALI

This young Sicilian-American artist is an innovator. She might bring her love of Sam Cooke and The Ronettes to an old Sicilian folk song, or create a new ballad around an old Sicilian tale that has something important to say to today's listeners. Born into a multicultural family she grew up with multiple languages in the USA. Endlessly curious and vital, she knows how to make serious scholarship into something surprising & entertaining. Joined by classically trained multi-instrumentalist Addison Freeman.

A performance recorded on the stage of Caffe Lena in Saratoga Springs, New York - the longest continuously operating folk music venue in the United States.
