This Sunday, our Gospel presents us with Parable of the Ten Virgins, challenging us with a crucial question: Is your lamp full?

In the rush of our daily lives, it is easy to let our spiritual reservoirs run low. The "oil" Jesus speaks of cannot be borrowed at the last minute—it is built up daily through our personal prayer, reception of the Sacraments, and active charity toward our neighbors. Let us use this week to intentionally look at our habits and ensure we are keeping our hearts fueled and ready to welcome Christ in every moment.

Este domingo, nuestro Evangelio nos presenta la parábola de las diez vírgenes, planteándonos una pregunta crucial: ¿está llena tu lámpara?

En el ajetreo de nuestra vida cotidiana, es fácil permitir que nuestras reservas espirituales disminuyan. El «aceite» del que habla Jesús no puede pedirse prestado en el último momento; se acumula día a día mediante la oración personal, la recepción de los sacramentos y la caridad activa hacia el prójimo. Aprovechemos esta semana para examinar conscientemente nuestros hábitos y asegurarnos de mantener nuestros corazones abastecidos y preparados para acoger a Cristo en todo momento.

THIRTY-SECOND SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

CATHOLIC CAMPAIGN FOR HUMAN DEVELOPMENT
WORKING ON THE MARGINS

The bishops of the United States founded the Catholic Campaign for Human Development (CCHD) to fight poverty by empowering members of local communities, rather than by offering top-down solutions. Using this approach, CCHD-funded organizations identify the most pressing issues and develop creative solutions that lead to lasting positive changes in the community. They address poverty at its roots.

Access to affordable housing is a challenge for people in neighborhoods across the United States. Housing insecurity is not limited to big cities—it affects people in small towns and rural areas as well. Kentucky's Lewis County, where 23% of residents live below the poverty line, is one example.

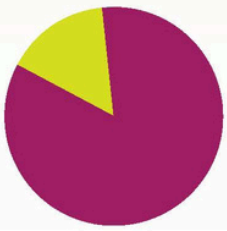

Since 1982, People's Self-Help Housing Inc. (PSHH) has helped residents of Lewis County secure affordable housing by constructing new energy-efficient homes, repairing and rehabilitating existing homes, and maintaining affordable rental units, while also creating jobs by training local residents as carpenters, electricians, and plumbers. Located in the Diocese of Covington and supported by CCHD funding, PSHH shares CCHD's commitment to helping people help themselves.

Your contribution to the CCHD collection helps organizations like PSHH to break the cycle of poverty across the country and in your own neighborhood, where 25% of your contribution remains to support local antipoverty efforts.

Learn more about how CCHD advances the Church's moral and social teaching by empowering communities: visit www.usccb.org/cchd.

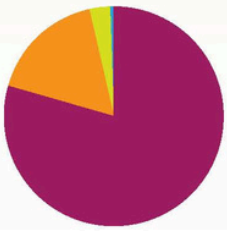

LEARN about those living in poverty who are working to improve their communities. • ACT and spread the word about poverty by sharing this flier. • CONNECT with the work of CCHD by supporting the collection. • PRAY for those who benefit from this collection.

CAMPAÑA CATÓLICA PARA EL DESARROLLO HUMANO

TRABAJANDO DESDE LA PERIFERIA

Los obispos de los Estados Unidos fundaron la Campaña Católica para el Desarrollo Humano (CCHD, sigla en inglés), con el fin de luchar contra la pobreza al empoderar a miembros de las comunidades locales en vez de ofrecerles una solución de arriba hacia abajo. Utilizando este enfoque, las organizaciones que reciben fondos de CCHD identifican los problemas más urgentes y desarrollan soluciones creativas que llevan a cambios positivos y duraderos en la comunidad. Éstas tratan con la pobreza desde sus raíces.

En vecindarios a lo largo y ancho de Estados Unidos, el acceso a viviendas asequibles presenta un reto para las personas. La inseguridad para conseguir una vivienda no está limitada a las ciudades grandes—esto también afecta a las personas que viven en pueblos pequeños y en zonas rurales. Un ejemplo de esto es el condado Lewis, en Kentucky, en donde el 23% de sus residentes vive bajo la línea de pobreza.

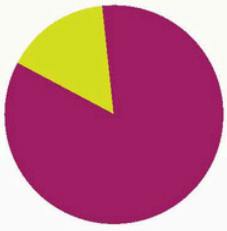

Desde 1982, la People's Self-Help Housing, Inc. (PSHH, sigla en inglés) ha ayudado a los residentes del condado Lewis a conseguir viviendas asequibles al construir unas viviendas nuevas y más eficientes en el uso de la energía, a reparar y rehabilitar viviendas existentes y a conservar precios más bajos en las viviendas de alquiler y, al mismo tiempo, creando más trabajos capacitando a los residentes locales como carpinteros, electricistas y plomeros. Ubicados en la Diócesis de Covington y con fondos de la CCHD, el PSHH comparte el compromiso de CCHD de ayudar a las personas a ayudarse a sí mismas.

Las contribuciones de ustedes a la colecta de CCHD ayuda a organizaciones como PSHH a romper el ciclo de pobreza a lo largo y ancho del país y en sus propios vecindarios, en donde el 25% de sus contribuciones permanece allí para financiar labores antipobreza en sus localidades.

Infórmense más sobre cómo CCHD promueve la enseñanza moral y social de la Iglesia al empoderar a las comunidades: visiten www.usccb.org/cchd.

STEWARDSHIP CORNER

TIME ✦ TALENT ✦ TREASURE ✦ By: Bill Vigil

A STEWARDSHIP PRAYER FOR NOVEMBER

Gracious and loving God, As the autumn season continues its transformation; and the days become shorter, the earth cooler; as we anticipate joining family and friends in joyful celebration on Thanksgiving Day, we pause to give You thanks and praise for the abundant blessings You have bestowed upon us:
For life and health, safety and comfort, food and nourishment, we are sincerely grateful. Through your Spirit, open our hearts so that we may be even better stewards of these rich and unmerited gifts.
Show us how to be a blessing for the poor, sick, lonely and all who suffer. And help us nurture the gift of faith, revealed to us by your Son, Jesus Christ, our greatest gift, who lives and reigns with You and the Holy Spirit, God forever and ever. Amen.

UNA ORACIÓN SOBRE LA CORRESPONSABILIDAD PARA NOVIEMBRE

Dios bondadoso y lleno de amor: a medida que el otoño continúa su transformación, los días se acortan y la tierra se enfría; mientras nos preparamos para reunirnos con familiares y amigos en una alegre celebración con motivo del Día de Acción de Gracias, nos detenemos para darte gracias y alabarte por las abundantes bendiciones que nos has concedido:
Estamos sinceramente agradecidos por la vida y la salud, la seguridad y el bienestar, el alimento y el sustento. Por medio de tu Espíritu, abre nuestros corazones para que podamos ser mejores administradores de estos dones tan valiosos que hemos recibido sin merecerlos.
Muéstranos cómo ser una bendición para los pobres, los enfermos, los que se sienten solos y todos aquellos que sufren. Ayúdanos, además, a cultivar el don de la fe —revelado a nosotros por tu Hijo, Jesucristo, nuestro mayor regalo—, quien vive y reina contigo y con el Espíritu Santo, Dios, por los siglos de los siglos.
Amén.

THIRTY-SECOND SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Jesus' parable of the ten virgins, some prepared, others unprepared, is directed at those who profess to be believers in Christ and await his return. His teaching is not directed to unbelievers. The stewardship issue turns on spiritual preparedness for the Lord's return. Good stewards prepare for Christ's return daily, in their life of prayer, worship, and acts of compassion and generosity. A stewardship reflection for the week: Are we preparing ourselves for the Lord? Are we open to the Holy Spirit's work within us? Are we ready?

TRIGÉSIMO SEGUNDO DOMINGO DEL TIEMPO ORDINARIO

La parábola de Jesús sobre las diez vírgenes —algunas preparadas y otras no— está dirigida a quienes profesan creer en Cristo y aguardan su regreso. Su enseñanza no va dirigida a los no creyentes. La cuestión de la mayordomía gira en torno a la preparación espiritual para el retorno del Señor. Los buenos mayordomos se preparan para el regreso de Cristo a diario, mediante su vida de oración, adoración y actos de compasión y generosidad. Una reflexión sobre la mayordomía para esta semana: ¿Nos estamos preparando para el Señor? ¿Estamos abiertos a la obra del Espíritu Santo en nuestro interior? ¿Estamos listos?

THE KNIGHTS OF COLUMBUS INVITE YOU TO KNOW YOUR FAITH EVEN BETTER THAT YOU DO NOW!

The St. Juan Diego Council of the Knights of Columbus have arranged for weekly hourly classes touching upon the topic of Catholic Biblical Apologetics.

These sessions are presented by Mr. Ed Wassell, a member of St. Benedict's Parish, who has been teaching these informative classes for over the past 25 years at almost every parish in Anchorage.

These sessions are FREE and open to adult men and women alike and will continue for about 4 months. Non-Catholics are welcome. There will be handouts on many occasions and each attendee is asked to bring your Bible to every session.

The next session will be held on Thursday evening, Nov 12th at 6:30 PM in the Tepeyac Lounge of the Lunney Center (Parish Hall) for about an hour. If you can't make the first session, just show up at the next session. All sessions will be held on a Thursday, with the exception of a few occasional Thursday events, such as holidays and other previously scheduled activities.

If you don't mind letting the Knights know if you plan to attend, call John Fleming at 907-248-2000 ext. 405 and leave a message. We want to be sure we have enough chairs. If you just want to show up and check it out first, that is okay. If you forget your Bible, we may have a few available each evening. You can also call Mr. Fleming if you have any questions.

LION'S CLUB 2026 PARISH THANKSGIVING SENIOR DINNER

Please RSVP by Thursday November 19 th by calling the OLOG office at 248-2000, extension 205, and give us your name and the name of your guest if you have one. If your call goes to message, just leave a detailed message with the same information. ST. THERESE'S CAMP CAMPAMENTO DE SANTA TERESA

CELEBRATE RUDY'S 59TH BIRTHDAY BY BLESSING THE KIDS!

Thank you for positively influencing young people's lives through your support of Saint Therese's Camp.

I am so honored to partner with you to bring fun, faith, and friends to the lives of 3rd to 12th graders every summer, and to all the people who pass through the gate.

And this month, please help me celebrate my 59th birthday (November 6) by sending next summer's high school campers on a high-ropes challenge course! A generous benefactor has contributed $5000 to get us more than halfway to our $9000 goal. Please join me in getting us the rest of the way!

HERE'S THE LATEST FROM CAMP - GLORY BOUND 2026.

We have all the counselors in place, and we have just one spot for a boy grade 6 to 8 available. We have the fireworks for New Year's Eve in place. My wife Ruth has the food service coming along. The only thing we lack so far is snow; but I somehow think that's going to be here too :).

Summer camp 2027 is coming together!
We have our core senior staff together, and we have an encouraging prospect we'll likely add to that team. We've had a good number of very positive counselor applications arrive in the last couple weeks. On a point of history, we've always been blessed with good counselors. A few factors make counselor recruiting easier for us than it is for many other Christian camps. First, we're the only residential Catholic camp in the state. Second, we only need about 20 people. Third, we are in the state of Alaska, and that is a powerful draw for young people from outside the state. I genuinely feel for so many Christian camps who struggle to generate a full complement of counselors each summer. I am very thankful that the Holy Spirit brings so many deeply faithful, enjoyable and engaging young people to us each year.

FAMILY MATTERS

I don't remember if I have written anything about our immediate family recently. I have read that it is good to keep our champions abreast not only of camp happenings, but also family news. So here it goes.

Our eldest daughter Grace married Stephan from the Kenai Peninsula in July 2025. Stephan is an airline pilot for a Grant Aviation. We received the happy news about a month ago that Stephan and Grace are expecting their first child in April. Though I don't know if this has their approval yet, I have nicknamed that child "Momo". Momo is part of the scientific name for the dwarf Japanese flying squirrel. In our family, pre-born children were given nicknames of cute little animals because we didn't want to know what sex they were until the delivery, but we didn't want to refer to our children as "its". Three of those nicknames have stuck into adulthood. I don't know if Momo will, but it's certainly a cute little animal.

HELP ME SEND KIDS TO A CHALLENGE COURSE NEXT SUMMER!

I have launched my annual birthday fundraiser. This year I will leverage my birthday to raise the funds required to send our high school campers to a high ropes challenge course next summer!

The four churches that came up from Seattle this summer spent an afternoon at the course, and I stopped by to see how it works. It looks great. I am convinced it will provide a great growth experience for our high schoolers. CLICK HERE for a video and CLICK HERE for a photo album of the challenge course in action. Onward & Upward operates the challenge course, and they are professionally trained and certified high ropes operators. Plus, a generous benefactor will match all donations dollar for dollar up to a total of $5000. Please join me in sending kids climbing next summer! The goal is $9000. The kids will love this experience. CLICK HERE to help send the kids. Thank you!

To make that happen, we'll need hundreds of helping hands throughout the day, and we'd love for you to join us!
