STEWARDSHIP AND THE DAILY MIRACLES OF CHARITY BY DAN CONWAY, CHAIR, ICSC BOARD OF DIRECTORS "CHRIST IS THE BREAD OF LIFE. WITH HIM, OUR NEEDS ARE ABUNDANTLY MET" (POPE LEO XIV)

During the Angelus on Sunday, August 2, Pope Leo XIV reflected on the miracle of the loaves and fish (Mt 14:13-21).

To feed the hungry, even when we think that we lack the necessary resources to make a difference, is an act of Christian charity that can produce miracles. Stewardship is a sign that we recognize that everything we possess has been freely given to us by a generous and loving God whose only request is that we develop and share what God has given us. The resulting miracle begins in us, in the change of heart we experience when we embrace the stewardship virtues of gratitude, responsibility, generosity, and the willingness to give back to God with increase. Good stewards encounter Jesus in the act of generous sharing. Saint John Paul II taught that it is not possible to fully appreciate the gifts that we receive from God unless we give them away, sharing them generously with others. As long as we cling to our possessions (time, talent, and treasure), we can never experience their true meaning or significance in our lives. That's why the stewardship virtues of gratitude, responsibility, and generosity are inseparably linked. Generous people thank God for what they have to share. That's why Saint Matthew tells us that Jesus performed a eucharistic action—a prayer of thanksgiving to God—before he fed the people. Jesus was not indifferent to the needs of the people. He refused to let his disciples deny any personal responsibility for feeding the crowd of more than 5,000 men, women, and children. He told them to do the impossible, saying: "There is no need for them to go away; give them some food yourselves." Pope Leo recognizes the relationship between stewardship, and the miracles that can happen in our daily lives: As we savor the grace of the Eucharist, let us commit ourselves to bearing witness to its beauty in our daily actions, beginning with blessing meals at the table with family and friends. Bless us, O Lord, and these your gifts which we have received from your bounty and are commanded to share generously with others. And let us never refuse to take responsibility for the needs of our sisters and brothers. Rather, may we always be thankful, responsible, and generous stewards of all God's gifts.

LA CORRESPONSABILIDAD Y LOS MILAGROS COTIDIANOS DE LA CARIDAD. POR DAN CONWAY, PRESIDENTE DE LA JUNTA DIRECTIVA DEL ICSC. «CRISTO ES EL PAN DE VIDA. CON ÉL, NUESTRAS NECESIDADES QUEDAN ABUNDANTEMENTE SATISFECHAS» (PAPA LEÓN XIV).

Durante el Ángelus del domingo 2 de agosto, el Papa León XIV reflexionó sobre el milagro de los panes y los peces (Mt 14, 13-21).

Alimentar a los hambrientos, incluso cuando creemos carecer de los recursos necesarios para marcar la diferencia, es un acto de caridad cristiana capaz de obrar milagros. La corresponsabilidad es señal de que reconocemos que todo lo que poseemos nos ha sido dado gratuitamente por un Dios generoso y amoroso, cuya única petición es que desarrollemos y compartamos lo que Él nos ha otorgado. El milagro resultante comienza en nuestro interior, en el cambio de corazón que experimentamos al abrazar las virtudes de la corresponsabilidad: gratitud, responsabilidad, generosidad y la disposición de devolver a Dios lo recibido, multiplicado. Los buenos corresponsables encuentran a Jesús en el acto de compartir generosamente. San Juan Pablo II enseñó que no es posible valorar plenamente los dones que recibimos de Dios a menos que los entreguemos, compartiéndolos generosamente con los demás. Mientras nos aferremos a nuestras posesiones (tiempo, talento y tesoro), jamás podremos experimentar su verdadero sentido o significado en nuestras vidas. Por ello, las virtudes de la corresponsabilidad —gratitud, responsabilidad y generosidad— están inseparablemente unidas. Las personas generosas dan gracias a Dios por aquello que tienen para compartir. Por eso, San Mateo nos relata que Jesús realizó una acción eucarística —una oración de acción de gracias a Dios— antes de alimentar a la multitud. Jesús no fue indiferente a las necesidades de la gente; no permitió que sus discípulos eludieran su responsabilidad personal de alimentar a aquella multitud de más de 5.000 hombres, mujeres y niños. Les pidió que hicieran lo imposible, diciéndoles: «No hace falta que se vayan; dadles vosotros de comer». El Papa León reconoce la relación entre la corresponsabilidad y los milagros que pueden suceder en nuestra vida cotidiana: al saborear la gracia de la Eucaristía, comprometámonos a dar testimonio de su belleza en nuestras acciones diarias, comenzando por bendecir los alimentos en la mesa junto a familiares y amigos. Bendícenos, Señor, y bendice estos dones que hemos recibido de tu generosidad y que estamos llamados a compartir con largueza con los demás. Que nunca nos neguemos a asumir la responsabilidad ante las necesidades de nuestros hermanos y hermanas; más bien, seamos siempre corresponsables agradecidos, responsables y generosos de todos los dones de Dios.

DR. LLEWELLYN YOUNG

Dr. Llewellyn K. Young, Jr. is the Superintendent of Hawaii Catholic Schools for the Diocese of Honolulu, bringing more than 30 years of experience in educational leadership, administration, and student development. Born and raised on Kauai and a graduate of St. Theresa School in Kekaha, he has dedicated his career to advancing educational excellence and faith formation in schools and higher education institutions across Hawaii and the mainland United States.

Prior to his appointment as Superintendent by Bishop Larry Silva in 2020, Dr. Young served as Principal and Head of School at St. Joseph School in Hilo, Associate Superintendent of Catholic Schools, Dean of Student Affairs and Associate Professor at Arizona Western College, and Assistant Dean at Northern Arizona University. He is recognized for innovative leadership initiatives, including the nationally featured COHORT governance model, the statewide "I Go 2 College" partnership with Chaminade University, and the revitalization of leadership formation programs for Catholic school administrators.

Under his leadership, Hawaii Catholic Schools experienced its largest enrollment growth in more than a decade while strengthening Catholic identity, governance, and educational excellence throughout the Diocese. A frequent presenter on leadership, diversity, and student development, Dr. Young remains committed to forming future leaders and ensuring that Catholic schools continue to thrive as centers of faith, learning, and service.

OUR RETREAT LEADERS

Living Joyfully Amid the Turmoil of Life

MANDY THRONAS-BROWN

Mandy Thronas-Brown is currently the Associate Superintendent for Hawaii Catholic Schools which she assumed on July 1, 2021. She is responsible for leadership development and mentoring, accreditation compliance, and executive administration support for all Catholic preschools/early learning centers and elementary schools (PK-8) in the state. She also coordinates all major Catholic school Diocesan (District) events including the Mass of the Holy Spirit, Annual Conference for Catholic Educators (ACCE), and the Annual Choral Festival. She is currently the Catholic schools' representative on the DHS Childcare Advisory Council and also serves as the Western Catholic Education Association (WCEA) Accreditation Commissioner for Catholic Elementary Schools. She also serves as the Catholic schools Asbestos Compliance Liaison and works with the schools on other safety and compliance issues.

Mandy has a Bachelor of Arts degree in Music and a Master of Education degree with Educational Leadership Emphasis from Chaminade University. She has well over 20 years of experience in education. She began her teaching career at St. Ann School in 1997 as a Music Teacher. In 2010, after having been with St. Ann's for 13 years, Mandy was promoted to the position of Principal for St. Ann Early Learning Center. Three years later, Mandy assumed the position of Principal of St. Ann School. She served as principal until 2021 when she became the Associate Superintendent.

IF YOU SEE IT:
Do not approach or follow it. Call APD at 3-1-1 for a non-emergency sighting or 9-1-1 for an emergency. After contacting APD, call us at 907-222-7300.

RAIS's van was stolen earlier this week, and its an essential tool for helping new arrivals resettle, move into housing, and get to appointments.

If you see this van, please call APD immediately and then call Catholic Social Services to let us know. Do not approach or follow it yourself.

thank you!

FRESH INTERNATIONAL GARDENS:

(4520 MchPhee Ave, Anchorage, AK 99508)

The FIG farming co-op is winding down for the season, and needs bags of leaves for mulch to winterize the soil.

Donors can bring leaves in bags to Fresh International Gardens: 4520 MchPhee Ave (the gardens across the street), and drop them by the big wood chips piles. We will take bags until Oct 16!

SAINT FRANCIS HOUSE FOOD PANTRY CURRENT NEEDS:

Drop off at 3710 E. 20th Ave. from 1-4 pm Monday through Thursday and 9-4 on Fridays. Donations for specific CSS programs should be taken to each program location.
