RINCÓN DE LA MAYORDOMÍA

PARABLE OF THE GOOD SAMARITAN

Today's Gospel turns our attention to one of Jesus' most familiar stories, the Parable of the Good Samaritan. It is about living how God intended us to live: to acknowledge God's divine love and compassion lavished upon us, and to extend that love and compassion upon others without reservation. We can find a lot of reasons for not stopping to help someone. We can talk ourselves out of being Good Samaritans. Strangers are not our responsibility, or are they? Good stewards understand that God's mercy is a gift that must be shared, and that doing the right thing, acting as Jesus would act toward others, is the only course of action for one who lives according to the demands of the Gospel.

In Jesus' story, he identifies two people who walked by the robbers' victim before the Samaritan came along. In reality, there may have been more – perhaps many more – who walked by or intentionally avoided the injured man. How often do we walk past or avoid reaching out to those in need – especially if they are different from us in appearance, background or beliefs. Examine how you can better follow Jesus' instruction to "Go and do likewise." How might you be a Good Samaritan this week?

PARABOLA DE LA BUENA SAMARITANA

El Evangelio de hoy nos lleva a una de las historias más conocidas de Jesús: la parábola del Buen Samaritano. Se trata de vivir como Dios quiso que viviéramos: reconocer el amor y la compasión divinos que Dios nos ha prodigado, y extenderlos a los demás sin reservas. Podemos encontrar muchas razones para no detenernos a ayudar a alguien. Podemos convencernos de no ser buenos samaritanos. Los desconocidos no son nuestra responsabilidad, ¿o sí? Los buenos administradores entienden que la misericordia de Dios es un don que debe compartirse, y que hacer lo correcto, actuando como Jesús actuaría con los demás, es la única forma de actuar para quien vive según las exigencias del Evangelio.

En la historia de Jesús, identifica a dos personas que pasaron junto a la víctima de los ladrones antes de que llegara el samaritano. En realidad, puede que hubiera más, quizás muchos más, que pasaron junto a la víctima o que la evitaron intencionalmente. ¿Con qué frecuencia pasamos de largo o evitamos ayudar a quienes lo necesitan, especialmente si son diferentes a nosotros en apariencia, origen o creencias? Examina cómo puedes seguir mejor la instrucción de Jesús: «Ve y haz lo mismo». ¿Cómo podrías ser un buen samaritano esta semana?

BAPTISM

Baptism is the first of seven sacraments and the way in which a person becomes a member of the Catholic Church.

St. Paul describes baptism as the "first installment of our inheritance toward redemption as God's possession, to the praise of his glory" (Ephesians 1:14).

Baptism does five things:

1. It forgives all sins that were committed before baptism, including original, mortal, and venial sin.
2. It makes the baptized a new creature.
3. It turns the baptized into a newly adopted son or daughter of God and a member of the Church.
4. It brings them to share in the royal priesthood of Christ. (1 Peter 2:9)
5. It leaves a spiritual mark (or character) of belonging to Christ on the soul of the baptized.

FIRST HOLY COMMUNION

Following Jesus' instruction at the Last Supper to "do this in memory of Me," Catholics gather together, weekly, around the altar to be nourished and strengthened with God's Word and with the Body and Blood of Christ. We believe that this holy sacrifice and meal is the source of the faith that enables us to live as Jesus taught us to live, and the summit – our most important act of Catholic worship, which celebrates and creates Christian unity. The word "Eucharist" comes from the Greek word for "thanksgiving." We give God thanks for the gift of Jesus. The word "Mass" comes from the Latin word that means "sent." Strengthened by the Eucharist, we are sent into the world to do Christ's work.

Cathedral of Our Lady of Guadalupe provides preparation for children who would like to share Holy Communion for the first time. To discuss your child's participation in this program. Please call the office at 907-248-2000 Ext. 2

CONFIRMATION

Our Confirmation program is designed to prepare the high school Confirmation candidates to receive the Sacrament of Confirmation. Whether attending Catholic or public school, students are invited to begin preparing for the Sacrament of Confirmation—a two-year process rooted in prayer, service, and full participation in parish life.

To discuss your teen's participation in this program, please call the office at (907) 248-2000 Ext. 2
