SECOND SUNDAY OF EASTER OR SUNDAY OF DIVINE MERCY

APRIL 11, 2021

Who indeed is the victor over the world but the one who believes that Jesus is the Son of God? — 1 John 5:5

A Message from Our Pastor:

My dear sisters and brothers,

On this final day of the Octave of Easter, so often the Gospel of Doubting Thomas tends to overshadow the other themes presented in the day's Scriptures. Both the Gospel and the first reading present another important idea for reflection. The reading from Acts of the Apostles speaks of the unity of one mind and one heart of the early Christian community. This concept of community carries over in the Gospel. Thomas comes to faith in the Risen Lord in the midst of the gathered apostolic community. All through the Easter Season we read from the Acts of the Apostles which invites us to reflect on how our faith in the Risen Lord is to be lived. The imposing presence of Paschal candle in the sanctuary reminds of this important fact.

May this Easter Season be an opportunity for discovering the presence of the Risen Christ among us.

With fond affection, Fr. Hank

Mis queridas hermanas y hermanos,

En este último día de la Octava de Pascua, tan a menudo el Evangelio de Tomás dudoso tiende a eclipsar los otros temas presentados en las Escrituras del día. Tanto el Evangelio como la primera lectura presentan otra idea importante para la reflexión. La lectura de Hechos de los Apóstoles habla de la unidad de una mente y de un corazón de la comunidad cristiana primitiva. Este concepto de comunidad se traslada al Evangelio. Tomás llega a la fe en el Señor resucitado en medio de la comunidad apostólica reunida. Durante todo el Tiempo de Pascua leemos de los Hechos de los Apóstoles que nos invita a reflexionar sobre cómo se debe vivir nuestra fe en el Señor resucitado. La imponente presencia del cirio pascual en el santuario recuerda este importante hecho.

Que esta Pascua sea una oportunidad para descubrir la presencia de Cristo resucitado entre nosotros.

Con afecto sincero, P. Hank

A STEWARDSHIP PRAYER for April

Oh, Blessed Lord!

Oh, Risen Lord!

We look through the crosses we have carried this past year and give you thanks for the awe-inspiring hope that Easter brings. We give you thanks for calling us your friends and allowing us to share in the sacrifice of your of your body and blood, which is poured out for many. Oh, merciful Lord, redeemer and teacher, by the power of the Holy Spirit give us the patience and insight to listen to you during this time of continued uncertainty. Give us the wisdom to find creative ways to put the Eucharist into action; and give us the courage to bring your Easter message of hope to a world that desperately needs your love. To you be glory and honor forever and ever. Amen

UNA ORACIÓN DE MAYORDOMÍA para abril

¡Oh, Bendito Señor!

¡Oh, Señor Resucitado!

Miramos las cruces que hemos llevado el año pasado y les damos las gracias por la esperanza inspiradora que trae la Pascua. Te damos gracias por llamarnos tus amigos y permitirnos compartir el sacrificio de tu cuerpo y sangre, que se derrama por muchos. Oh misericordioso Señor, redentor y maestro, por el poder del Espíritu Santo danos la paciencia y la perspicacia para escucharte durante este tiempo de continua incertidumbre. Danos la sabiduría para encontrar formas creativas de poner en práctica la Eucaristía; y danos el valor para llevar tu mensaje de esperanza de Pascua a un mundo que necesita desesperadamente tu amor. A ti sea gloria y honor por los siglos de los siglos. amén

United in Mission: God's Work, Our Hands

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

May the grace and peace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with us always!

During the installation Mass in September, Archbishop Christophe Pierre, Pope Francis' representative to the United States, read the Holy Father's decree of May 19, 2020, uniting Anchorage and Juneau into the new Metropolitan Archdiocese of Anchorage-Juneau.

Since that time, we have been working on the many challenges of unifying the two former dioceses. Some evident fruits of our efforts so far are The North Star Catholic paper, the new website aoaj.org, unified social media, and now the new name for our Annual Catholic Appeal: United in Mission.

United in Mission aptly describes the reality of Pope Francis uniting southern Alaska into one archdiocese. United as Brothers and Sisters in Christ, we participate in the Mission of the Church. We build up the community of faith (Acts of the Apostles 2:42-47), and we proclaim the good news of Christ through evangelization (Matthew 28:16-20). Participation in the Annual Catholic Appeal is a meaningful way we live out our Catholic faith under the banner United in Mission.

Each year the stewardship committee will choose a different theme that will help us focus on an aspect of our lived experience United in Mission. For our first United in Mission appeal beginning in May, the stewardship committee selected: God's Work, Our Hands. This theme helps us focus on our responsibility as missionary disciples of Christ. We pray that our hands may be the hands of Jesus. We pray that in all we do, we may become more like Him. We freely give of our time, talent, and treasure in service of God, one another, and those in need.

Please join me in participating in the Annual Catholic Appeal for 2021, United in Mission: God's Work, Our Hands.

Sincerely in Christ,

Archbishop Andrew Bellisario, C.M.
