My dear sisters and brothers,

We normally associate a call to repentance with our observance of Lent, yet throughout the liturgical year the Liturgy of the Word calls us to conversion. In today's gospel, Jesus enters Galilee with the challenge: "Repent, repent for the kingdom of heaven is at hand." Unambiguously, Jesus proclaims his intention to inaugurate God's kingdom. He issues a call to enter a new relationship with God by undergoing a change of heart. In baptism, we are called to recognize that "the kingdom of heaven is at hand." In our daily lives, we grow to experience Jesus' presence and witness that we are his followers. This is life process, of course. This is what is meant by "continuous conversion." Jesus continues to call to us that the kingdom of his Father is at hand.

With fond affection, Father Hank

Mis queridas hermanas y hermanos,

Normalmente asociamos una llamada al arrepentimiento con nuestra observancia de la Cuaresma, pero durante todo el año litúrgico la Liturgia de la Palabra nos llama a la conversión. En el evangelio de hoy, Jesús entra en Galilea con el desafío: "Arrepentíos, arrepentíos porque el reino de los cielos se ha acercado". Sin ambigüedades, Jesús proclama su intención de inaugurar el reino de Dios. Emite un llamado a entrar en una nueva relación con Dios mediante un cambio de corazón. En el bautismo, estamos llamados a reconocer que "el reino de los cielos se ha acercado". En nuestra vida diaria, crecemos para experimentar la presencia de Jesús y dar testimonio de que somos sus seguidores. Este es el proceso de la vida, por supuesto. Esto es lo que significa "conversión continua". Jesús continúa llamándonos que el reino de su Padre está cerca.

Con gran cariño, Padre Enrique

STEWARDSHIP CORNER

Following Jesus

We follow all sorts of people and organizations on social media. Friends. Celebrities. A favorite author, athlete, charity, or business. At times, we may think before following: do we want the additional postings or emails? Typically, following a business or celebrity does not require much of a commitment. We may or may not read every post that comes through on our feed. We might respond, or we may not. Even when we do, our response is often as simple as hitting the "like" button. Following Jesus is a very different sort of thing.

To follow Jesus means to enter into a relationship with him and to exercise good stewardship over that relationship. When Jesus asks us to follow him, we know that doing so is to have an impact in our lives. As with any friendship, if our relationship with Jesus is to grow, we will have to spend time with and pay attention to him. At first, this might mean taking a few moments at the beginning or end of each day for prayer. We may be more attentive during Mass; we may pause in the midst of our day's activities to notice the beauty of creation, the blessing of family and friends, the gift of kindness and patience shared among co-workers. The best of friends also influence each other, for the better. Growing in relationship with Jesus will change us, leading us to think of others as well as ourselves, often putting the needs of others first. We learn to be mindful of those who need to know God's love through our actions, serving them, sharing forgiveness, mercy, compassion, and faith. Following Jesus is the work of a lifetime. At every step forward, one is challenged to go further in accepting and loving God's will. Being a disciple is not just something else to do, alongside many other things suitable for Christians; it is a total way of life and requires continuing conversion (Stewardship: A Disciple's Response, p. 15). How will you follow Jesus now and into the future? How will you learn from and invite him to have an impact in your life? How will your stewardship of this relationship impact the way you live?

Siguiendo a Jesús

Seguimos a todo tipo de personas y organizaciones en las redes sociales. Amigos. Famosos. Un autor favorito, atleta, organización benéfica o negocio. A veces, podemos pensar antes de seguir: ¿queremos las publicaciones o correos electrónicos adicionales? Por lo general, seguir a un negocio o una celebridad no requiere mucho compromiso. Podemos o no leer cada publicación que aparece en nuestro feed. Podemos responder, o puede que no. Incluso cuando lo hacemos, nuestra respuesta suele ser tan simple como presionar el botón "Me gusta". Seguir a Jesús es algo muy diferente.

Seguir a Jesús significa entrar en una relación con él y ejercer una buena mayordomía sobre esa relación. Cuando Jesús nos pide que lo sigamos, sabemos que hacerlo tendrá un impacto en nuestras vidas. Como con cualquier amistad, si queremos que nuestra relación con Jesús crezca, tendremos que pasar tiempo con él y prestarle atención. Al principio, esto podría significar dedicar unos momentos al comienzo o al final de cada día para orar. Podemos estar más atentos durante la Misa; podemos hacer una pausa en medio de las actividades de nuestro día para notar la belleza de la creación, la bendición de la familia y los amigos, el regalo de la bondad y la paciencia compartida entre los compañeros de trabajo. Los mejores amigos también se influyen mutuamente, para mejor. Crecer en una relación con Jesús nos cambiará, llevándonos a pensar tanto en los demás como en nosotros mismos, a menudo anteponiendo las necesidades de los demás. Aprendemos a tener en cuenta a aquellos que necesitan conocer el amor de Dios a través de nuestras acciones, sirviéndoles, compartiendo el perdón, la misericordia, la compasión y la fe. Seguir a Jesús es el trabajo de toda una vida. En cada paso adelante, uno es desafiado a ir más allá en aceptar y amar la voluntad de Dios. Ser discípulo no es simplemente otra cosa que hacer, junto con muchas otras cosas propias de los cristianos; es una forma de vida total y requiere una conversión continua (Stewardship: A Disciple's Response, p. 15). ¿Cómo seguirás a Jesús ahora y en el futuro? ¿Cómo aprenderás de él y lo invitarás a tener un impacto en tu vida? ¿Cómo afectará su mayordomía de esta relación la forma en que vive?
