

Danny Platt & Mason Jar Confessions

Artist Bio – Boone, NC – Folk and Punk fans alike can breathe easier with the release of Danny Platt and Mason Jar Confession’s first single ‘Just Passing Through.’ After over a year of recording, Danny spared no expense in making sure every musical detail of his album was produced correctly. This premier release ‘The Sound,’ coming in November of 2021, will undoubtedly gain traction in the industry with his powerful songwriting, explosive solos from the band, and his ability to create songs that people can relate to.

What Others are Saying

“He’s been writing tunes for so many years, he really has a great grasp on exactly how he wants his tunes to be, and that really shows on the album. [A] great communicator always handles each session with a positive attitude and is articulate on the changes he wants made.”

(Producer Adam Campbell)

The Mason Jar Confessions have created a sound that mimics if the Dropkick Murphy’s fell in love. His upbeat and happy go lucky sound is a pleasing twist to the Folk/Punk combination in their music. Danny’s voice is raw and tells in-depth stories through its sound alone. Combining incredible lyricism with the soothing vocals of his partner in crime, Dawn Nichols, the music narrates beautiful imagery of life, love, and sports heartbreak.

Danny and his group are rapidly gaining traction in the Western and Central parts of North Carolina by playing venues in Charlotte, Greensboro, and Asheville. This new album ‘The Sound,’ is sure to bring fans to their feet and have radio disc-jockeys throwing away their workout routines for how often it will be requested.
