

Forevermark Cabinetry provides a limited warranty of two to five years on cabinetry parts and hardware against manufacturer defects in materials and workmanship under normal domestic use. The exact coverage duration depends heavily on the specific style and finish of the cabinets.

Warranty Duration breakdown

- Most Standard Cabinet Lines: Covered by a 5-year limited warranty from the original date of purchase.
- Candescent Line: Covered by a 3-year limited warranty.
- Painted Finishes & Door Styles: Restricted to a shorter 2-year limited warranty.

Eligibility & Key Conditions

- Original Owner: The warranty only applies to the original consumer purchaser and is valid as long as they own the home.
- Non-Transferable: Coverage ends immediately if the home is sold or transferred to a new owner.
- Proof of Purchase: You must provide the original receipt or proof of purchase to initiate a claim.
- Domestic Use Only: It only covers cabinets installed for standard residential use at the original installation site.

What is Excluded?

- Extreme Environments: Damage caused by extreme humidity or temperature fluctuations is not covered. Wood naturally expands and contracts.
- Natural Aging & Yellowing: Natural changes in wood color over time or differences between newly replaced parts and older, aged cabinets are excluded.
- Mitered Door Joints: Joints reacting to changing climate conditions in the home are not covered
- Misuse & Improper Care: Products that have been misused, mishandled, improperly stored, or incorrectly installed are void of coverage.
