The Celtic Compass - this spread was created by Kyle Gray specifically to use with his 'Angels & Ancestors' deck which I love. With these cards I am guided not only to look at the message of the cards but also the characters and symbols of the cards which give guidance on your energy at this time and the energies that are working through you and around you; your energy, what is grounding you now, current thoughts, desires, emotions, intentions or what needs attention now or the future.

Nine card spread - This spread is about giving guidance on nine key aspects of your life; your past, present, future, strength, heart, challenge, home & family, relationships & romance and career & purpose.
