Free Bible Resource! Luther Seminary has a wonderful free online Bible resource called Enter the Bible. All you need to do is go to <https://enterthebible.org/> and click on “Sign Up” to create a username and password. The site has information on every book of the Bible. You can ask questions. You can look up people in the Bible. There are maps and study guides and much, much more. This is absolutely free and creating a username and password does not obligate you to anything.

Pippinfest: This year’s fundraising event has, to date, raised $5,120.50 toward St. John's current expense account. Once again, we can applaud ourselves on a successful event for the community and church. THANK YOU!!!
