THE AWARE & PREPARE INITIATIVE was launched in 2008 as a public-private partnership led by the Orfalea Foundation to strengthen disaster readiness in Santa Barbara County. Over a decade later, it has evolved into a community-led and community-driven partnership to support individuals and organizations in preparing for, responding to and recovering from emergencies. Aware & Prepare/Alertar y Preparar is now a statewide entity providing leadership for the creation and sustainability of the LISTOS program which provides disaster preparedness information and education for non-English speaking populations as well as support for Community Emergency Response Team (CERT) programs that train volunteers to help their neighbors and communities during times of emergencies and disasters. Additionally, the Aware & Prepare/Alertar y Preparar team provides strategic advisory services to public, nonprofit and private sector entities in organizational resilience including emergency and business continuity planning. For more information, visit their website at www.listos.awareandprepare.us.

CALM's mission is to prevent childhood trauma, heal children and families, and build resilient communities throughout Santa Barbara County. For over 50 years, CALM has provided nationally recognized, evidence-based services that have proven effectiveness in not only preventing trauma from occurring but improving the lives of traumatized children. It is the only nonprofit in Santa Barbara County focused solely on preventing and healing childhood trauma. From intake to completion, CALM therapists support families to develop consistent, safe, structured home settings that facilitate recovery, and guide children and caregivers through treatment programs. They provide individual and family counseling services - in English and Spanish - via telehealth or in-person services, resource and referral services, support for teens, and activities for preschool and school-age children via the website and Facebook page. These are difficult and uncertain times. Please ask for support if you need it. For more information, visit their website at calm4kids.org.
