

□ A Message to Our West Virginia Clients

To our valued clients across West Virginia,

We know that recent severe weather has brought unexpected challenges to many communities throughout the state. During times like these, we want to reaffirm our commitment to standing with you and supporting your recovery and resilience.

If your business has been impacted and you're unsure where to turn for resources or guidance, CEI is here to help. Whether you need assistance navigating support programs, adjusting plans, or simply someone to talk to about next steps, please don't hesitate to reach out.

Your strength and perseverance inspire us every day. We're proud to serve you and walk alongside you as we move forward—together.
