

Capability Statement

Environmental Restoration Services

A.C. Armstrong Design Group is a full service landscape design and installation firm that blends talent with experience. Our designers have been creating custom landscapes since 1998, and our installation division has been restoring the environment for the last 15 years. We provide environmental restoration services throughout the region. From Hydro-seeding and Storm water Management practices, to stream bank restoration and stabilization projects, we lead the area in installation methods. Our experienced crews provide many landscape restorative services throughout the region, and have a vast amount of experience working together with designers, state and local governing agencies, and private sector land owners, to complete quality environmental restoration projects. ACA Design Group is a leader in the design industry and values the ability to work with the outdoor environment.
