Justice for the Voiceless — Faith Statement

Our Faith and Foundation

Justice for the Voiceless is founded upon the conviction that every human life is created by God, bears His image, and possesses inherent dignity and value. We believe that this truth applies to every human being, regardless of age, size, stage of development, ability, location, or circumstance.

We believe that human life begins at fertilization and that the child in the womb is a living human being deserving of love, protection, and justice. Scripture teaches that God knows and forms us in the womb (Psalm 139:13–16) and that human beings are created in His image (Genesis 1:26–27).

We believe Christians are called to defend those who cannot defend themselves and to speak for those whose voices are not heard:

> “Open your mouth for the mute, for the rights of all who are destitute. Open your mouth, judge righteously, defend the rights of the poor and needy.” — Proverbs 31:8 (ESV)

> “learn to do good; seek justice, correct oppression; bring justice to the fatherless, plead the widow’s cause.” – Isaiah 1:17 (ESV)

We therefore believe the Church should compassionately stand for the preborn while also extending mercy, practical help, and the love of Christ to women and families facing difficult pregnancies.

We believe abortion is the intentional taking of an innocent human life and is therefore contrary to the biblical command, “You shall not murder” - Exodus 20:13 (ESV). Because every human life has equal value before God, we seek justice and equal protection for children in the womb.

Our goal is not merely to oppose abortion but to faithfully pursue a culture and legal order that protects every human life, cares for mothers and families, and recognizes the God-given dignity of the preborn.

Justice for the Voiceless exists to speak for those who cannot speak for themselves, defend the vulnerable, proclaim the truth of Scripture, and pursue justice with mercy, compassion, courage, and love.

“But let justice roll down like waters, and righteousness like an ever-flowing stream.” — Amos 5:24 (ESV)
