

Wine & Music Quick Guide

Creative starting points for your table, your soundtrack, and your taste.

Chicago House & Bubbles

Explore Brut Champagne, Cava, or Prosecco. Check the bottle's sweetness label. The connection is the lively texture and atmosphere.

Listening ideas: "The Whistle Song": Frankie Knuckles; "Jack Your Body": Steve "Silk" Hurley.

Rock & Reds

Try Cabernet Sauvignon or Syrah with a hearty dinner and a bigger guitar sound. A lighter dish may suit a lighter red.

Listening ideas: "Kashmir": Led Zeppelin; "Dream On": Aerosmith; "Aeroplane": Red Hot Chili Peppers.

Jazz & Easy Evenings

Explore Pinot Noir, Merlot, or Chardonnay for a slower evening. Choose the wine style you enjoy and let the music shape the scene.

Listening ideas: "In a Sentimental Mood": Duke Ellington; "So What": Miles Davis; "Ain't Nobody's Business If I Do": Billie Holiday.

These are personal, creative pairings—not rules about which wine a genre requires. Track names are listening suggestions; this guide does not contain a hosted playlist.

Create Your Own Pairing

Try the same wine with two tracks. Notice the atmosphere and what you prefer.
